WORLD'S LEAD TAKEN BY COOK CO. HOSPITAL

Chicago as Medical Capital.

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT.
Completion at Cook County hospital of structures now nearly finished will make that institution the largest hospital in the world.

There is more than the significance of mere size in this statement. The special value to medical science of Cook County hospital is its value as a vast and varied laboratory for the confirmation on a large scale of the history making research work, which centers in and around the hospital. To give only one illustration: Practically every investigation into the cause and treatment of pneumonia, has been checked and confirmed at Cook County hospital, because there the run of pneumonia patients is, as one of the staff put it, terrific.

Great Study of Skull Fracture.
Similarly, Prof. Le Counts' great work on skull fracture was largely done and perfectly confirmed at Cook County hospital.

A multitude of such instances of epochal achievement that originated in the immense research and teaching area of which the County hospital is the center, are known to medical men. It is their knowledge of them that makes them unanimous in the statement that Cook County hospital is the heart of the greatest medical teaching and research area in the world.

Many a layman, on the contrary, is inclined to think of this fourteen million dollar plant—when he gives it any thought—as merely a station for the patching of derelicts.

Boon to Medical Chicago.
What it is really, is an institution that has brought the opportunities of Vienna to within two and a half miles of the Chicago city hall. In other words, the days have long since passed when it was necessary for such men as the Fusesys to betake themselves to the Austrian capital for an essential part of the study which brought them to their present eminence.

With the completion of its two and a half million dollar building program Cook County hospital will have 3,200 beds for patients. The London-Middlesex hospital will then rank second in capacity, with 2,000 beds, and the Vienna general hospital (Wiener Allgemeine Krankenhaus) third, with 2,800 beds.

REED GIBES AT LOWDEN IN FORD $1,000,000 SUIT

Continues Quizzing of Sapiro.

Detroit, Mich., April 6.—[Special.]—The $1,000,000 suit of Aaron Sapiro against Henry Ford today became the vehicle in which rode presidential politics.

Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, chief counsel for Mr. Ford, used his cross-examination of Mr. Sapiro to take some vigorous wallops at Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois.

Reed, who is one of the leading possibilities for the Democratic nomination in 1928, framed his questions in such a way that they were of direct bearing on the issues on which Mr. Lowden is being boomed for the Republican nomination by farmers' organizations of the midwest.

It was when Reed was questioning Sapiro about the personal and national wheat growers' advisory committee that the name of Lowden was brought out.

"He never grew any wheat, did he?" he asked.

"I don't know if he grows wheat, but he certainly grows grain," volunteered Sapiro.

Not a Capitalist.
"He's a capitalist, isn't he?"
"No," replied Sapiro.
"And been governor of Illinois?"
Reed said with a face of a sneer.
"No, he is not a capitalist," returned the angered witness. "He is a splendid lawyer and a very fine farmer, probably the largest farmer in some respects in the entire United States."

MURDERERS RUN JAIL KANGAROO COURT; QUASHED

Murderers awaiting execution in the county jail have taken over control of the historic "kangaroo court" and have abused its privileges, Warden Edward J. Fogarty declared yesterday as he abolished the court.

The kangaroo court was started twenty years ago for the purpose of aiding needy prisoners. New arrivals in the jail were held before the court and fined, the money collected in this manner being given to the prisoner in need.

Russell Scott, John Flannery and "Bootsie" Stamm, all murderers, were those who took over the court to provide funds for themselves, the warden said.

$30,000 PEARLS GO TO FINDER; NO CLAIMANTS
New York, April 6.—[Special.]—A $30,000 strand of graduated pearls with a diamond and platinum clasp has just come into the possession of Adelaide Forts, who found them in Lenox avenue about a year ago. The strand is composed of 103 pearls.

When she found them Adelaide Forts asked a jeweler if they were worth $5. He said they were and notified the police.

Mrs Rita Lydig Files Petition in Bankruptcy

New York, April 6.—[Special.]—A voluntary petition in bankruptcy was filed this afternoon by Mrs. Rita H. De Acosta Lydig, divorced wife of W. E. D. Stokes and Maj. Philip Lydig, and former fiancée of the late Dr. Percy Stetkey Grant.

The petition said that Mrs. Lydig's liabilities aggregate $94,352, and she has no assets except clothing, furniture, and sundries of unestimated value. Her name appears in the petition as Rita H. De Alba Lydig.

Her Principal Creditors.
Mrs. Lydig's principal creditors, as named in the petition, are: French & Co., $28,549; Estate of Wolf & Co., Inc., $12,732; a servant, $1,000; Lincoln Motor company, $5,940; Lenygton & Morant, for services, $11,000; Callott Soeurs of Paris, $9,290; Boucet & Fils, $2,924; Dr. Frank Peterson, $3,535; Henri Bendel, Inc., $3,125; Alexander Lambert, M. D., $485, and City of New York, for personal taxes, $296.43.

Mrs. Lydig married Stokes when she was 19 years old, and had one son, who went to Stokes when the pair were divorced.

Engagement Was Broken.
She later married and divorced Maj. Lydig. Her engagement to the late Dr. Grant was announced in 1921, but was broken in May, 1924, her announcement said, "owing to Bishop Manning's refusal to give his consent to the marriage in the Protestant Episcopal church."

EVANSTON HORSE BALKS ON TRACK; HALTS "L" TRAINS

Spring wanderlust seized a big white horse in Evanston late yesterday afternoon, so traffic on the elevated railroad in the suburb was stopped for half an hour during the rush hour period while workers sought to coax the animal from its station between the tracks.

The horse wandered from the Consumers company stables at Greenleaf street and Chicago avenue and climbed a slight incline to the elevated embankment back of the barn. It traveled north nearly a mile before it blocked a north bound shoppers' special and a south bound Jackson Park train by standing between the tracks near the Davis street station.

Frightened by attempts to drive it away, the horse balked and trains were stalled south to Howard street and north nearly to Wilmette. A policeman finally tempted the animal away with a rail of oats. It was taken first to the police station, but later released and restored to its stall.

Take First Step to Make New Brunswick Wet

FREDERICTON, N. B., April 6.—(AP)—A bill providing for the sale of liquor in New Brunswick under the commission system, sponsored by Premier J. B. Baxter, was introduced in the provincial legislature tonight.

As Premier Baxter controls a majority of the legislature, the measure is expected to pass. Enactment of this bill will leave only two dry provinces in Canada, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

2 Bandits Rob Alton Special; Escape Here

Taking possession of the baggage car on the Lincoln Limited, Chicago and Alton railroad special, soon after it left Joliet at 9:30 o'clock last night, two robbers forced an American Railway Express company messenger to open up a safe, from which they took cash, drafts, and bonds of an estimated value of $20,000.

Passengers Didn't Know It.
While passengers in the long line of Pullman coaches behind were unaware of what was going on, the two modern buccaners calmly tied up four men and proceeded with their operations. When they had finished rifling the safe, they had some minutes to spare before the train entered Chicago and they divided up the spoils, keeping revolvers pointed at their prisoners. One man jumped off the train at Halsted street and the other at Western avenue when the engine slowed up for crossings.

The two robbers left behind them, bound and gagged, the conductor, James Connery, 1145 South Cuyler avenue, Oak Park; Frank Wenglass, 5010 South Morgan street, cook in the dining car; A. A. Gotthoff, the express messenger; and George Mitchell, colored, a porter. They took approximately $150 from the pockets of their prisoners.

Robbery Well Planned.
Well laid plans had been made by the two men and they showed exceptional daring and coolness when their schemes went wrong in one particular. They had cut a signal wire on the railroad five miles out of Joliet so that the train would stop at that point, and they had planned to leave the train then, it was learned. One robber wore an army overcoat.

Delayed in forcing the express messenger to open up the safe, they had not completed their robbery when the train slowed to a stop at the broken signal. The engineer, unaware of what was going on in the baggage car, speeded up the special when he saw that the tracks were safe and the robbers proceeded calmly, finishing the rifling of the safe.

The men boarded the train, a special from St. Louis to Chicago, at Joliet. Soon after the cars were in motion they walked forward to the baggage car. Connery, the conductor, and Gotthoff, the express messenger, were talking together when the robbers appeared. They wore masks of black netting and each carried a revolver.

Tie Conductor With Rope.
Connery and Gotthoff were forced to lie down and the robbers tied the conductor with rope, which they carried, and gagged him. Then Gotthoff ordered at the point of a gun to open up the safe. He was about to do so when Wenglass, the cook, appeared with the dining car receipts to deposit with the express messenger. He also was forced to lie down and was tied up.

Once more, the robbers turned their attention to the safe but they were interrupted again by the appearance of Mitchell, the colored porter. Showing no impatience, the bandits roped up the porter and rolled him in the corner with the others. Then Gotthoff opened up the safe and the men sorted out the currency, drafts and checks into separate piles.

PEKING DEFIES RUSSIA; WAR BY SOVIET FEARED

Offices in Embassy Grounds Raided.

BULLETIN.
MOSCOW, April 6.—(AP)—News of the raiding by northern troops at Peking of the "Soviet Embassy" has reached Moscow by way of Reuter's News agency and had not been confirmed tonight by Tass, the soviet news agency. The news will not be published pending confirmation. Privately circulated information in Russian circles that the raid was carried out with the "connivance" of officials of the legation quarter aroused the utmost indignation among soviet officials.

PEKING, April 7 (Thursday, 10:30 a. m.)—The Congressional missionaries at Tchow are evacuating to Tientsin, including Grace Jevne, who is well known in Chicago.

PEKING, April 6.—Marshall Chang Tao-lin, Manchurian war lord, today committed what the soviet authorities here assert was an overt act by a raid upon the grounds of the Russian embassy with armed troops. Buildings adjoining the embassy were searched for many hours. Sixteen Russians and thirty-six Chinese, some being women, were arrested in the soviet embassy raid, including Li Ta-chao, National university professor and leader of the Chinese communist party.

The impression obtains that the raid may result in a soviet declaration of war against Peking. This would solidly line up the treaty powers with the Peking government and furnish the makings of an international war. However, it is too early to define the outcome.

Gets Diplomatic Permit.
The buildings raided included the barracks, formerly occupied by the legation guard in the days of the czar, the soviet bank and the offices of the Chinese Eastern railway, which is part Chinese owned.

Having convinced the diplomatic body that he possessed proof that the soviet government is backing the Cantonese nationalist government of south China, Marshal Chang induced the Dutch minister, Herr Oudendijk, who is dean of the diplomats, to issue a permit for entry and search of the Russian buildings occupied by the legation guard. Police and troops, numbering 200, quickly occupied the buildings, which are opposite the American and Dutch and adjoining the British legations.

Headquarters of Revolt Plot.
The troops carried off all Russians not officially accredited to the embassy and also confiscated and carried away for inspection many boxes of documents. Arms, including automatic guns, and great quantities of literature, placards, banners and other paraphernalia believed to have been prepared for a Chinese bolshevik demonstration in Peking also were seized.

NEEDS 14 QUARTS OF BEER TO CLEAR THROAT, HE SAYS

Frank Klesta told Judge Joseph Burke in the Court of Domestic Relations yesterday that his health would be in danger if he cut his week-end allowance of 12 quarts of beer to two, as the court suggested.

Klesta's wife had him arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct. She told the court he would return helplessly drunk late Sunday nights.

"I'm a woodworker, your honor, and it takes 14 quarts of beer to cut the dust out of my throat over the week-end," he explained to Judge Burke.

"Why, Judge, it's not the beer as much, it's the wine and moonshine he drinks that makes him act foolish," interrupted the wife.

"Better cut that 14 quarts down to two," suggested the court.

"'Twould ruin my health," protested Klesta.

The Judge continued his case.

World tourists from the steamship... absolute witness to the raid on the Russian building. Felix Warburg, well known American banker, who is reported to be planning a visit to Moscow to negotiate a huge loan with the Soviet government, was among the tourists.

Two Americans to Be Deported.

The defenders of Peking today also pushed a rigorous war on all suspected enemies of the government and persons favorable to the nationalists. Two Americans under arrest, Mrs. Mildred Mitchell of San Francisco and Wilbur Burton of Columbus, O., journalists in the employ of organizations favorable to the nationalists, will be transported to Tientsin. The consular court is expected to remain them for trial in the American court at Shanghai, as the Chinese assert they will press the conspiracy charge.

Mrs. Mitchell lately has been employed by a news agency from which American protection has been withdrawn and was about to depart for Shanghai for service with the nationalist government. Burton also had been a correspondent for a nationalist paper in Shanghai, but both assert their work was solely in journalistic capacities. The Chinese are convinced they can show a deeper connection. Mrs. Mitchell was known in San Francisco under the name of Bennett. The American legation seems not inclined to uphold the accused.

Confirms Behaving of Gen. Pi.

Further evidence of Marshal Chang's determination to carry on the warfare is seen in the beheading yesterday at Tsinanfu of Gen. Pi-Shu-chen, lately commander of the northern troops in Shanghai, but whose loyalty was suspected. The loyalty also is suspected of the troops of Marshal Sun Chuan-ang, necessitating Haichowfu being made the base for stemming the nationalists' northward tide.

Owing to the raid on the Russian embassy all foreigners evacuating are being advised to cancel their bookings via Siberia, which is interpreted as meaning that the treaty powers anticipate Russian action against Peking.

Japanese Quit Foochow.

An anti-communist coup occurred at Foochow, under orders of Gen. Chiang Kai-shek. The Japanese are evacuating Foochow.

Following the refusal of the American consul at Amoy to sign impossible demands, the employees declared a strike. The postal and other services are tied up. The destroyer Bulmer is standing by.

RUSSIAN SCORES RAID

BY JOHN POWELL.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
SHANGHAI, April 6.—The Soviet consul general at Shanghai, F. W. Ande, when interviewed by The Tribune and Associated Press correspondents tonight regarding Marshal Chang

CHINA'S TANGLE

Gen. Chang Tso-lin raided Russian legation buildings in Peking, arresting several persons. His act is called overt by Soviet officials. Anti-foreign sentiment still seethes at Hankow. Anti-American feeling is rife at Changsha and Kiangsi. Conditions in the interior of China are still extremely unsettled with discord appearing in the nationalist forces. Foochow has set up a conservative government.

Tso-lin's action in raiding the Soviet embassy at Peking, declared he did not believe the news reports from Peking that the diplomatic corps had granted the Mukden war lord the right to invade the legation quarter. Under international law, the diplomatic corps possesses no right under the Boxer protocol to permit any Chinese soldiers to invade the diplomatic quarters, he added.

"If the diplomatic corps, including the American, British, and Japanese ministers, granted Marshal Chang the right to invade the premises of the Soviet embassy, it establishes a most dangerous precedent," he continued. "Any nation possessing self-respect must abhor this action by Marshal Chang, which is contrary to the long established international law of all civilized countries, and is particularly dangerous in China owing to the fact that Marshal Chang is likely shortly to be ousted by the Cantonese, who may not be friendly towards certain other foreign ministries accredited to the Peking government."

British Police Chief Killed.
An Indian police officer named Budika Singh, carrying the title of Sirdar Sahab, head of the local British Indian Sikh police force, numbering more than 600, was murdered on the street fronting the American club this morning, the murderer being an Indian Sikh watchman formerly connected with the municipal police department.

British police, assisted by military, raided the India church, located in Chinese territory, within the Chapel native district of Shanghai, arresting seven alleged Indian seditionists, who are believed to be affiliated with the Kuomintang.

Although British officialdom refuses to comment on the subject, it is known that the British are seriously concerned with the alleged connection of the Indian revolutionists with the present Chinese revolution. British Indian troops numbering 4,000 were brought here from India for the purpose of assisting in the defense of Shanghai.

American Consuls Quit Posts.

Serious anti-American agitations and parading occurred at Changsha, Hunan province, yesterday over the Nanking incidents. The Chinese denounced the Americans for following the British and participating in the Nanking bombardment. Native crews employed on Standard Oil company ships struck, and a boycott was declared on all American goods.

Vice Consul George Vincent at Changsha is sealing the consulate and will depart for Hankow tomorrow. Walter Adams, American consul at Chungking, is leaving for Hankow. American Consul Lockhart at Hankow is planning to close the consulate premises as soon as the Americans can be evacuated. American Consul John K. Davis at Nanking is still making his headquarters on an American gunboat off shore.

Chang Gets $3,000,000 Loan.

The Chinese Bankers' association today advanced a loan of $3,000,000 to Gen. Chiang Kai-shek for the purpose of paying the Cantonese troops and financing the northern campaign against Marshal Chang Tso-lin. It is also stated an additional $7,000,000 is shortly forthcoming from the bankers. The loan was negotiated by T. V. Soons, Nationalist finance minister, who has established his office in the international settlement in the premises of the Russo-Asiatic bank, which was seized by the nationalists a few days ago.

The vernacular papers also state the Hankow executive committee has ordered Gen. Chiang to cease all negotiations with the foreigners and proceed immediately to Nanking in order to lead the northern expedition, but that Gen. Chiang is defying the Hankow executive. According to rumors Gen. Chiang may shortly declare himself dictator, with the financial backing of the Shanghai Chinese merchants and bankers, who fear the dominating influence of the communist wing of the Kuomintang.

The central labor union announces another general strike beginning next Friday, but it is reported tonight that

Gen. Chiang is planning to close the union headquarters.

May Send 1,500 More Marines.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., April 6.—Strong indications that the 1,500 marines now on the way to San Diego for training purposes will be started on the way to China within the next ten days was given at the navy department today following the receipt of an important communication from Admiral Williams, commander in chief of American naval forces in Chinese waters. These will follow 1,500 officers and men of the 6th marines and artillery units, who will sail for China tomorrow.

President Coolidge discussed new developments in the Chinese situation with Secretary of State Kellogg and Secretary of the Navy Wilbur at the White House this morning.

'LL WORK FOR CHICAGO'S FAME, BILL PROMISES

3,000 Give Him Auto at Victory Banquet.

BY JOHN HERRICK.

"I'll strive for prosperity. I'll strive to make Chicago the greatest city in the world. We will stop the bread lines. We'll put the police back on their feet and rid the town of crooks. We'll invite the blue noses and the internationalists to get out of Chicago. Let's have teamwork. Once again, throw away your hammer and get a horn."

And 3,000 of Big Bill Thompson's staunch followers answered the mayor-elect's pledge to the city with cheer on cheer last night at the Thompson Business Men's club celebration at Mann's Rainbo Gardens. Also they gave him a car, a snappy, high powered sport model, in which he said he would tour the town to see that all goes well.

A Gala Celebration.

It was a vociferous gathering. Lights, dancing, vaudeville acts, plenty to eat, something to drink if you brought it, and congratulatory oratory in generous measure.

The speaker's table lined up as follows: Bernard W. Snow, bailiff of the Municipal court; Roy O. West, secretary of the Republican national committee; William Lorimer, once a senator but ousted; the mayor-elect; Richard Wolfe, toastmaster; H. W. Caldwell, president of the Business Men's club; Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney; Thomas Hinton, high in Masonry; William D. McJunkin, advertising man and publisher; Charles V. Barrett, member of the board of review; Sam Luzzo, president of the Laborers' union; Charles Burns, known as a yachtsman; Ald. Oscar Nelson, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor; Sheriff Charles E. Graydon; Patrick Sheridan Smith, city clerk; elect; former Judge Bernard Baran; Thomas Y. Sullivan, labor lawyer; St. Paul J. Lewis Coath, former school trustee; and Fred Mann, proprietor of the ballroom.

Dwell on New Harmony.

It was on the harmony that had come to the Republican party in Chicago that the other speakers dwelt most.

"We have remade the Republican party in this state," asserted State's Attorney Crowe.

"We have brought peace and happiness to the party," was the way Mr. Barrett put it.

"The Republican party is powered and equipped for the national campaign of 1928," Mr. West asserted.

INAUGURAL APRIL 18

"The great exit for gunmen, crooks, and stickup men," Mayor Elect William Hale Thompson said yesterday, will be among the first signs he will stick up after his inauguration, which is set for Monday, April 18. A new police policy that will put the policemen back to traveling beat instead of centralizing on the problems of Vice-squadism was widely discussed as the Thompson leaders, after Tuesday night's jubilation began to flock to headquarters.

No word of possible cabinet appointments came from Mr. Thompson, who said he expects to announce his slate at once, except when he has it ready; but some of his intimate friends say it looks strongly as if Capt. Michael Hughes may be picked as successor to Chief of Police Morgan Collins. It has been generally reported that Charles C. Fitzmorris, who was chief during the Thompson régime, could have the post, but he is now head of a coal company and does not care to go back to the city hall.

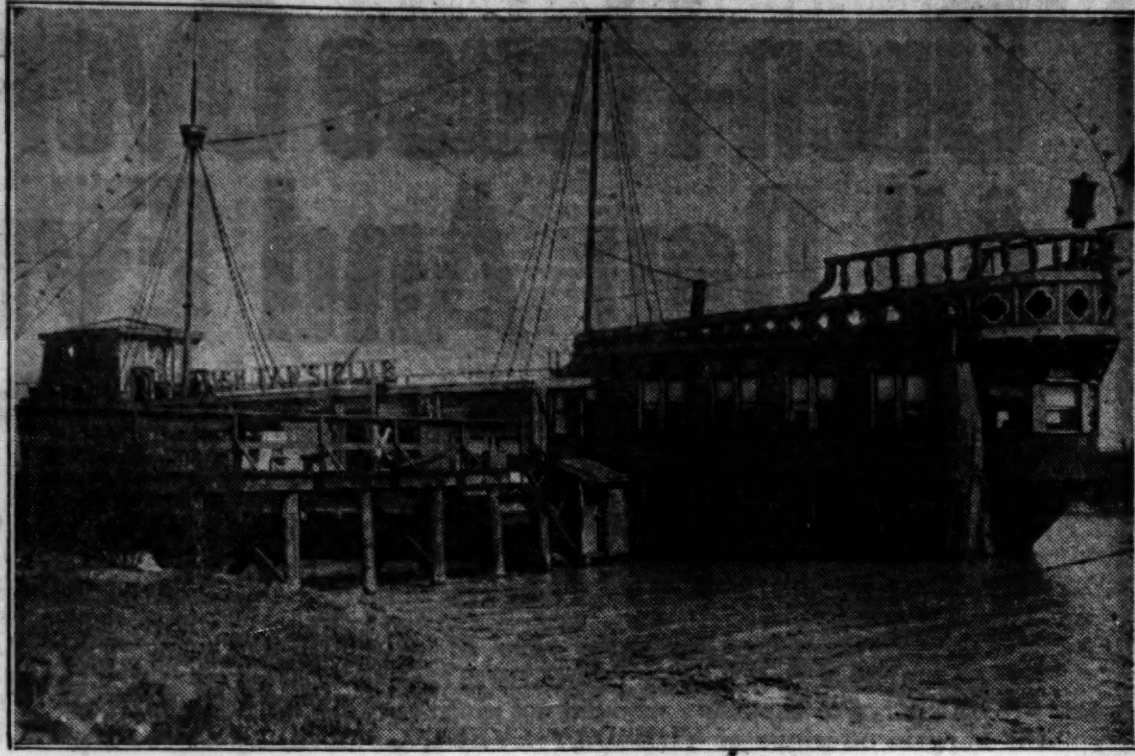

Hughes Enlarged by Bill.

Capt. Hughes, who was chief of detectives under Thompson, is now chief of the county highway police. During the campaigning Big Bill frequently enlarged him as "the greatest thief catcher in America."

"There'll be a general exodus of crooks," said the mayor-elect. "In ninety days the crooks will be practically out of Chicago."

Complete returns on mayor, gave Big Bill a plurality of 53,072 votes over Mayor Dever. He had a clear majority of 18,863 over Dever and Dr. John Dill Robertson combined. The unofficial vote stood: Thompson, 512,000; Dever, 323,000; Robertson, 51,200.

Thompson Celebration Sinks Fish Fans' Club

Under the weight of the Thompson supporters who celebrated the former mayor's victory the boat in Lincoln park, used as a clubhouse by the fans, sank several feet in the mud. The picture shows the clubhouse, as it appeared yesterday after the celebration. Before the boat sank the covered passageway now on the level of the water was at the level of the pier, which its top just reaches now.

U. OF C. PROFESSOR KILLS "PHENIX" AS TOO SNAPPY

Too many allusions to gin and girls; too many snappy sketches; too much comment that undergraduate life is wild; too much joking about fraternity men drinking have made the pages of The Phoenix, humorous publication at the University of Chicago, undesirable for student eyes, the faculty decided last night.

Prof. Frank H. O'Hara of the English department, director of student activities, announced that magazine would be printed no more, because its humor had become of a rubber stamp variety typical of "college humor magazines," but not typical in his opinion, of real student life.

A new magazine will replace The Phoenix, Prof. O'Hara announced. He appointed a committee of six to consider plans for the new publication. Members of the committee are Prof. Robert M. Lovett, Mrs. Edith Foster Flint, and Prof. O'Hara, all members of the faculty, the editors of the Daily Maroon and of The Forge, student publications, and the chairwoman of the women's organization.

COLLINS, BUSCH RESIGN; DEVER PLANS A REST

All Say They'll Retire to Private Life.

The Dever administration, after four years of supremacy in the city hall, started to disintegrate yesterday, clearing the way for the new Thompson régime, slated to come into power with the mayor-elect's inaugural a week from next Monday.

Two Dever department heads, Chief of Police Morgan A. Collins and Corporation Counsel Francis X. Busch, turned in their resignations during the day, both announcing that they will retire to private life. Other resignations are expected today.

As for the mayor, he probably will take a long rest before making his plans for the future. This summer he is contemplating a European trip and after that, possibly, accepting the offer of an executive position with a Chicago bond house. He will not return to the bench.

Dever Through with Politics.

"I am 55 years old and am through with politics," the mayor told a group of his friends. "There is nothing more in the way of prominence or those things that feed the vanity which I possess. I feel that I have contributed my share to the city's welfare and am willing now that others should take up the responsibility."

The mayor presided as usual at the meeting of the council. He chatted smilingly with those who gathered around him as he entered and left, apparently the lightest hearted of them all.

Chief Collins, the first of the Democratic chieftains to announce his retirement, declared that he would not take another post in the police department under Thompson, but, like the mayor, probably would enter the bond and mortgage business. He has served thirty-nine years on the police force and is entitled to a pension of $1,950.

"All Tired Out," Says Chief.

"My four years as chief were no sinecure," he said. "I had the toughest job, because of the prohibition law and the racketeers, that any Chicago police chief has ever had."

"I have played the game square and have done everything in my power to give the people of Chicago a good police administration. Now I am all tired out. I have worked harder than any man of the 6,000 members of the police department."

The chief laughed aside suggestions that he might open a detective agency or tour the country, lecturing on the Chicago crime problem.

FINAL ELECTION FIGURES UPHOLD POLL FORECAST

Thompson Vote Missed
by 0.98%.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

The straw vote of THE TRIBUNE forecast the results of the election with reasonable accuracy. A comparison of the poll and the election, applying the straw percentages to the actual votes is as follows:

Candidate	Actual Votes	Actual Per Cent	Straw Votes	Straw Per Cent
Dever	439,068	43.24	439,021	44.32
Thompson	512,740	51.50	508,783	51.30
Robinson	51,200	5.15	48,413	4.96
Totals	993,617	99.99	996,217	99.98

Missed by 13,711.
Mr. Thompson's plurality in the election was 33,072, while the straw vote indicated that it would be 32,361. The straw vote error was therefore 13,711. The basis of the straw vote reckoning is its final summary, printed last Monday morning, as follows:

Candidate	Prev. Reports	Today's Results	Final Total	Per Cent
Dever	432,994	5,431	438,425	44.32
Thompson	520,814	5,634	526,448	51.30
Robinson	5,283	631	5,914	4.96
Totals	1,000,000	11,716	1,011,716	99.98

The straws forecast Dever's vote at 44.32 per cent of the total. He received 43.24 per cent, a difference of 0.98 per cent, which meant 5,753 votes out of the total of 993,617 cast Tuesday. The straw vote indicated that Thompson would get 51.30 per cent of the ballots Tuesday, but he actually received 51.50, a difference of votes in his favor of 3,957. The poll credited Robinson with 4.96 per cent while he actually received 5.15 per cent, a difference of 5,696 votes in his favor.

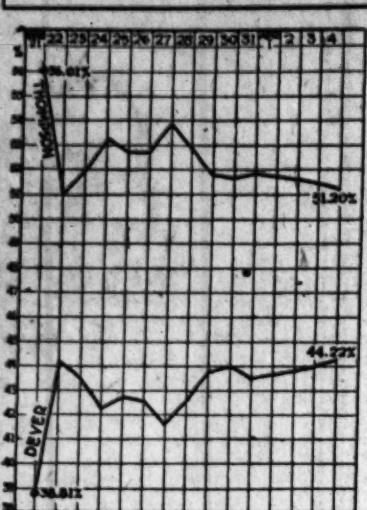

Results Almost Exact.

The poll of THE TRIBUNE gathered 132,107 straws from every locality in Chicago, from all typical industries and leading nationalities. The straw percentages, compared with the actual percentages, show a slight favor for Dever by taking too many straws in Dever areas. A comparison of the straw vote details with actual votes in certain localities show percentages so nearly duplicate that they are almost uncanny.

Boys Experiment with Powder; Severely Burned

Two boys, experimenting with gunpowder, were burned severely yesterday and one may be permanently disfigured. Frank Phillips, 13 years old, 1307 Marianna avenue, and Harold Rybandt, 12 years old, 1304 Marianna avenue, extracted the powder from some bullets and touched a match to the explosive.

Poll Trend

The two graphs above show the trend of the accumulative percentages of straws daily which each mayoralty candidate received in THE TRIBUNE pre-election poll. The graph starts on March 21 after polls for two days had been printed and accounted for 15,022 straws. On the basis of the 993,617 votes actually cast this graph shows Dever and Thompson 169,907 votes apart at the start of the straw vote. They finished only 6,988 per cent apart, or 6,981 votes, which was within 15,711 of the actual Thompson plurality. During the period covered by the graph it indicates that Dever gained about 50,000 votes.

PARIS, April 6.—(AP)—Simple ceremonies in honor of the soldier dead were held here today in observance of the tenth anniversary of the entry of the United States into the world war. The local American Legion took a prominent part.

Gen. Pershing, accompanied by American Legion officials including the national adjutant, James F. Barton, went to the Arch of Triumph at noon and placed a wreath on the tomb of France's unknown soldier. A color guard from Paris post No. 1 of the Legion attended the ceremony, as did Col. Vix, representative of Gen. Gouraud, military governor of Paris.

A number of Americans and Frenchmen also visited the Suresnes cemetery, outside of Paris, where wreaths were placed at the base of the flagstaff amid the graves of hundreds of war dead.

TRIBUNE SETS A WORLD MARK FOR ELECTION EXTRAS

Record Circulation of 909,448 Papers.

THE TRIBUNE established a new record in its own circulation and set a mark of mechanical and human efficiency unequaled by any newspaper in the world, in getting out its election editions yesterday for Chicago.

A 50 or 52 page paper, in three sections, was turned out by THE TRIBUNE presses for nearly every ballot cast in the war of a million votes between Thompson and Dever. There were 861,539 papers run off the presses, and the actual paid circulation was 909,448.

Analysis of these figures in the circulation department shows that the public regarded the Thompson-Dever fight with greater interest than the Dempsey-Tunney battle. The previous circulation record was set by the championship battle, when 905,000 papers were sold.

133,000 Extras Go on Street.

In the majority election four years ago 624,863 papers were sold, with about 60,000 extras as a result of the election interest. There were 133,000 extras yesterday for street sales.

Back of this achievement is not only the story of THE TRIBUNE plant, on its mechanical side, but the enthusiastic cooperation of 650 men in all news, advertising and mechanical departments, working with speed, precision, and a wholehearted, eager interest. They were out to make a family record and they did it.

Something of the magnitude of this one day's editions may be appreciated when it is stated in different terms. It meant 338 tons, or 778,884 pounds, of white paper used. This is 586 rolls, or about fourteen cartloads. It is represented in other terms by 580 cords of pulpwood, and traced still further back might have been found a short time ago in all the sizable spruce and balsam trees that were growing on an 85 acre tract in the virgin woods of THE TRIBUNE paper mills.

Deadline Pushed Ahead.

The regular closing time, or deadline, for the composing room is 8:45 o'clock in the evening. This was pushed up three-quarters of an hour on election night. The whole machine was thrown into high speed to make the most of these precious 45 minutes. It meant an earlier closing time for advertising copy and necessitated reporters coming in from the street, or telephoning stories, so that everything would be three-quarters of an hour ahead.

Fifty page forms on the composing room tables were all closed in thirty minutes. As the last minute was in sight one form was left with an unfilled hole. Some advertiser had not put his copy through in time. Six men jumped at the form, threw in a "space reserved" plate, piled the "furniture" around it in less time than it takes to tell it, and sent the page away with a whoop of delight. The next last was in the stereotyping room, where 300 plates had to be made for the eight presses that were waiting for the touch of an electric switch to set them thundering. The stereotypers cleared in twenty-four minutes. The presses started at 8:24 and at 8:30 the first of the delivery trucks was in the loop with the finished product, THE TRIBUNE election edition.

From then on it was a smooth engine that never faltered. The pages were increased to 12 for the home and final editions. Sixty wagons and 48 trucks were at work speeding across town, to trains and newstands, and at 5:59 in the morning the last of the 909,448 papers was out of the way. The pressmen, stereotypers, photographers, mailers, and drivers were happy.

The presses turned out these papers in 8 1/2 hours, a feat impossible in any other newspaper plant with this size and three section division of a paper.

Press Capacity Increased.

The superiority of THE TRIBUNE presses lies in the fact that they can hook up seven units instead of the usual six. In this way the capacity has increased from a 48 page limit to 58 pages. The whole battery of presses is built in tandem, and the extra capacity has been attained by placing at intervals and at right angles, an extra press unit. Every revolution turns out two papers.

Nine presses were used in printing the home and final editions of 52 pages, arranged in sections of 28, 10, and 14 pages, news, sports, and features. The new press unit and an assembling works on top of the presses makes such a natural separation possible.

PEACHES, HERE TO DANCE; TRANQUIL OVER LOST SUIT

Looking as though she hadn't missed many meals either before or since the recent adverse decision of a separation-suit jury at White Plains, N. Y., Mrs. Edward Browning, nee "Peaches" Heenan, reached Chicago yesterday to fill a dancing engagement at a cabaret. She was accompanied by her dancing partner, Leslie Couillard, and her mother, Mrs. Carolyn Heenan, who carried her coat while Peaches tussled with a huge police dog.

START RESHAPING COUNCIL TODAY ON THOMPSON MODEL

The victorious forces of William Hale Thompson today will turn their attention to reorganizing the city council.

At an informal meeting at 2 p. m. the incoming council, made up of 37 old and 13 new aldermen, will select the powerful committee on committees, a body of five which picks, biennially, the chairmen and members of the council's fourteen standing committees.

There is nothing secretive about the mayor-elect's plans to pass out the committee plums to his own followers. He passed several hours yesterday conferring with his leaders on the council situation. How far he will have to split with the Democrats, who still have a nominal majority, is problematical.

According to corridor gossip, Thompson's big four—Ald. Louis B. Anderson (2d) and Ald. R. R. Jackson (3d), colored chieftains, Ald. B. A. Cronson (4th), and Ald. Oscar F. Nelson (46th), Democratic labor leader who stumped for Thompson—will get about whatever they want.

To one of the four, possibly Anderson, the wisecracker says, will go the prize plum, chairmanship of the finance committee, held now by Ald. Ross A. Woodhull (7th), Dever's floor leader. Thompson rapped Woodhull's candidacy because the alderman had led the water meter fight and it is unlikely that he will even win a berth on the committees' committee.

Either Cronson or Nelson is said to be the best bet as head of the committee on local transportation, charged with solving the traction problem. Ald. Joseph B. McDonough (13th), who now holds the job, is a Democrat.

Other Important Posts.

Anderson, or any of the other three, may be given control of one of the other important committees—local industries, streets and alleys, buildings and zoning, or railway terminals.

In view of Thompson's war on Supt.

McAndrew, the chairmanship of the schools committee is certain to be an alderman who is "right." Nelson may ask for this post. If not, Ald. John J. Hoellen (47th), a Republican, or John S. Clark (30th), it is thought would be acceptable to the new mayor.

Ald. Leo Brieske (48th), the incumbent, was not reflected.

Ald. Jacob M. Arvey (24th), though a Dever leader, may retain the helm of the judiciary committee because of the large Jewish constituency he represents, and Ald. Thomas Byrne (18th), a Democrat who supported Thompson four years ago, the police committee chairmanship.

Bill's Strength Stands Test.

The new mayor's strength in the council received an excellent test yesterday in a vote on a $700,000 appropriation for the Calumet harbor project and found him apparently with little to worry about.

Wishing to put through the measure before Mayor Dever leaves office, Ald. Woodhull defied the Thompsonites who asked for a delay and the Democrats mustered their full strength for the roll call. They were beaten by four votes.

The procedure this afternoon in selecting the committee on committees, according to the rules, will be as follows:

The aldermen will divide into five groups of ten members each, wards 1 to 10, inclusive, 11 to 20, and so forth. Each group will then name one of its members and the five so named will constitute the committee.

Then to the Dickering.

It is the custom for the committee to leave within a day or two for a distant pleasure resort and there, between golf games, barter, dicker, and compromise, coming back with the committee lists in time to present them at the next council meeting. This ceremony is slated for April 18, the date of Thompson's inaugural.

When the new council convenes today there will be two seats, and possibly four, still contested.

Ald. Charles S. Eaton (5th) and Ald. Robert E. Barbee (17th) have announced that they will not step out until the courts decide on their charge that, counting spoiled ballots, their opponents, Leonard J. Grossman and James G. Coyle, failed to win majorities Feb. 22.

Titus A. Haffa, beaten in the 43d ward by Ald. A. F. Albert in a bitter second election, is planning to carry his contest on the primary to the Supreme court if necessary.

PARTIES AGREE TO COALITION IN BENCH ELECTION

Crowe and Brennan Both Pledge Harmony.

Republican and Democratic leaders met yesterday following the mayoralty election and agreed that concerning the nomination and election of Circuit judges there would be a harmonious coalition.

All but probably two or three of the sitting judges will be returned to the bench, it was predicted, although the necessary promises, to make the coalition one based on Chicago Bar association recommendations and not on political dickering, have not yet been passed.

Crowe Pledges to Coalition.

For the Republicans, State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe made the announcement following a conference with Homer K. Galpin, Bernard W. Snow, Charles V. Barrett and Mayor-elect William Hale Thompson. His statement was almost identical with the written pledge which he and Mr. Galpin signed last Saturday, promising adherence to the "principle of coalition in judicial elections" and declaring their intention to support judges who have made good records on the bench.

Mr. Crowe said the conference had agreed to this course as it had been set forth.

For the Democrats, George E. Brennan reiterated his promise of readiness to go the whole route, with the Bar association passing on the fitness of his party's candidates. With Mr. Brennan, at the time, were Michael L. Igoe, Edward J. Kelly and Martin J. O'Brien.

Believe Party Places Fixed.

Preceding the party conferences and announcements there was a lengthy talk between Mr. Brennan and Mr. Crowe and, while no definite word has been passed, it was understood that the places each party is to have were decided upon. Another bi-partisan meeting is to be held today and this phase of the question settled. The holding of the conventions also will be decided upon.

Both conventions are called for tomorrow morning at the Hotel Sherman, but the Republicans will ask for an adjournment until May 4 or May 5 to permit those who will go to the resorts for a post-election rest to return to town. The Democrats are expected to agree to this proposal.

As matters now stand, ten of the Republican judges now sitting on the Circuit bench are sure of being returned. The two doubtful ones, it is said, are George Fred Rush and Oscar M. Morrison. This will give the Republicans at least one and perhaps two places to offer the numerous aspirants.

Each Has Two Openings.

The Democrats hold only eight of the twenty Circuit places. Judge George Kersten's place will be available, since he is an invalid and eligible for pension. The Democrats have, however, Judge Timothy D. Hurley's vacancy on the Superior bench, giving them two openings also.

Who the likely candidates are for these four vacant places is still to be announced. Many promises were made during the heat of the Dever-Thompson campaign and the host of hopefuls is large. Brennan is pledged to ask for the Bar association's recommendations on the basis of an honest to goodness coalition. The Republicans have a similar pledge still ahead of them.

CARRINGTON RAPS WIFE'S MOTHER, OWN BROTHER

Colonel Talks of His Marital Row.

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK.

Col. Edward Codrington Carrington, rich, peppery, adroit, determined, and not unskilled in humor, spent several hours yesterday afternoon accusing his wife, Anna Walsh Carrington, and his brother, Campbell.

Both the colonel and Mrs. Carrington are seeking divorce.

Called to the stand in Judge George Fred Rush's court yesterday as the fourth witness in his own divorce trial, Col. Carrington outlined with terse phrase the tilts and turnouts of his married life that began June 2, 1920, and ended, for all legal purposes, he explained, the morning of September 3, 1924, when he said to his wife this none too original plaint: "This apartment is too small for your mother and for me. You won't live without your family; I won't live with them."

As Wifely Afterthought.

Whereupon, as he recalled to Attorney Paul F. B. Koenig, of his counsel, Mrs. Carrington had ordered him out, adding this prophetic postscript: "If you don't take your clothes with you, I'll throw them into the street. And if you come back, you'll find an ax at one door; a gun at the other."

Col. Carrington retreated—according to plan.

"At this time," Carrington said, "I had my suspicions of illicit and improper relations between my brother and my wife."

Still later that same year, and early the next, he recollected, he had more serious suspicions, but didn't want to believe them. When questioned by Attorney George Schein, chief counsel for Mrs. Carrington, he insisted that he tried not to believe what he thought he knew.

Judge Halts Argument.

Judge Rush cut off further argument with his reflection that "I believe that it often the psychology of a husband."

It was Jan. 10, 1927, he testified, that on investigation, begun many months earlier, revealed, at least to his satisfaction, that his wife, in 1924, had visited his brother in a secret apartment at 22 East 4th street, New York. Then it was that Fred Ahman, superintendent of the apartment building told him stories, which Ahman yesterday morning repeated on the stand, of Mrs. Carrington and pink lingerie and of Campbell Carrington.

"It was then," the colonel bit off the words, "that I was convinced there had been 'misconduct.' Ten days later his supplemental bill made the charge definite.

Asked by his counsel to detail to the court some of the instances which formed the early basis for his suspicions regarding his wife and his brother, the New York-Chicago millionaire, attorney, publisher, sportsman, did so with diligence.

First there was the instance at Block Island, Rhode Island, when Campbell invited himself up to the camp to go Tuna fishing with Edward.

Explains Tuna Fishing.

"Now when you go Tuna fishing," the colonel explained to the court, "you have to pull off at 8 in the morning and you go out 30 miles. But Campbell didn't go, on one pretext or another, for 4 or 5 mornings. Then at night he and my wife always managed to lose themselves on the island."

The colonel said his brother visited his camp at Lake Saranac after forbidden to do so.

A few weeks later Edward again discovered Campbell at Saranac. The explanation this time was that Campbell had driven over on the first trip, had developed a "charleyhorse" while playing tennis, had been obliged to leave camp by train, and had come back to get his motor.

This didn't satisfy the colonel, and he sent a pitiful wire informing his brother that the legal partnership of many years was dissolved.

Jokingly Poses as King.

Then came a time of domestic peace and quiet, following a telegram which he sent his wife Aug. 7, 1922: "Thanks for the letter. The king will join his royal consort tomorrow morning. We will entrain for our palace at Block Island."

The wire was signed Edward Claret.

"Just a bit of humor I tried to perpetrate on my wife," Carrington explained. "Doubtless it wasn't appreciated."

A year later, July 19, 1923, again at Saranac, he came upon a letter to his wife in his brother's handwriting. It called her darling, professed love, spoke jestingly of "Ned" (the colonel), and was altogether so upsetting that Mrs. Carrington swooned and had to have a doctor's attention when she learned that her husband had found it.

Col. Carrington will resume the stand for cross-examination today.

That Mrs. Carrington may employ an unusual supplemental defense was indicated yesterday by the presence in the courtroom of Dr. James Whitney Hall, nerve specialist. Dr. Hall said he had been retained by her counsel. The theory to which Dr. Hall will testify if he is put on the stand is that a middle aged man, accusing his wife of infidelity, often may be the victim of psychological involutions which make him exaggerate his wife's conduct.

STATE REVEALS YOUTHFUL VICE IN LA SALLE COUNTY

Immorality, Wild Parties
Shock Officials.

BY ORVILLE DWYER.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Ottawa, Ill., April 6.—(Special.)—Flaming youth has had its fling and now it is reaping a harvest of shame. Widespread immorality among girls ranging from 14 to 18 and youths of 19 and 21 in a half a dozen towns in this section is disclosed by an investigation of the state department of health that has just become public.

Twelve young men have been held to the grand jury for serious offenses, and four girls, one of them only 14 years old, have been adjudged delinquent. Twenty warrants for other men and several for other girls remain to be served.

Blame Bootleg Liquor.

Bootleg liquor, as in many other places in these prohibition days, plays a large part. The hip-whisky flowed on among the wild automobile parties and at lurid dances.

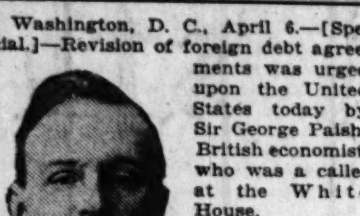

One of the young girls involved is the niece of a former public official. Another girl is in so serious a condition that she must go to a hospital for at least six months. The 14 year old girl has been sent to the State Home for Delinquent Girls in Geneva, Ill. The three others have been temporarily paroled to Miss Marie Dailey, county probation officer.

Attention of two state health department is said to have been called to the scandal by physicians. An inquiry is being made in several other towns.

Girls Shock Officials.

The stories told by the four girls and several confessions from the men are in the hands of the state's attorney's office. The names of only the men bound over to trial were made public. Most of these men are 19 or 20 years old. Some are from La

PAISH ISSUES PLEA FOR DEBT CUT AFTER CALL AT WHITE HOUSE

Washington, D. C., April 6.—(Special.)—Revision of foreign debt agreements was urged upon the United States today by Sir George Paish, British economist, who was a caller at the White House.

Following his talk with the President, Sir George asserted his belief that there must be a scaling down of interrelated debts and of German reparations requirements, as a means of aiding in the rehabilitation of Europe. There also must be an elimination of trade barriers, such as tariff walls, he said, in order that European nations may be able to sell their goods to other countries.

"The United States has been generous in debt settlements to other nations," he said. "If this country wants to be generous to its own interests, it should revise the debt agreements. I would like to see the movement for the revision of the debts come from within the United States."

"A financial crisis will develop which will react against the United States as well as Europe unless European nations are allowed to keep on their feet."

Salle, some from Oglesby, and some from Peru. Two are married and one has several children.

The girls talked of a great number of immoral acts so calmly and matter of factly that they shocked the county officials and state investigators.

MEXICO GENERAL BARES BIG PLOT TO KIDNAP YANKS

Planned to Seize Oil Man, Ask $500,000 Ransom.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

(Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.)

MEXICO CITY, April 6.—A plot with wide ramifications to kidnap Americans—partly to obtain ransom and partly to embarrass the Mexican government in its relations with the United States—has been uncovered as a result of the arrest of Gen. Federico Cordova and four accomplices.

The plotters had planned to start their kidnappings by seizing Albert E. Watta, vice president of the Sinclair Oil company, and holding him for $500,000 ransom.

Mr. Watta left for New York on Monday night. Only a few minutes before he left the capital he was informed of the plot. Mr. Watta, whose home is at Great Neck, Long Island, is reputed to be a multi-millionaire. He is a former vice-president of the Association of Oil Producers in Mexico. He came to Mexico two months ago with Harry Sinclair, president of the Sinclair Oil company.

General Confesses Plot.

Gen. Cordova, according to the police, confessed the plot to kidnap the oil man and gave details.

Mr. Watta was in the habit of walking from the Hotel Regis to Sanborn's tea room every afternoon. This is a distance of about half a mile. Halfway to Sanborn's is the Alameda, a large natural park. Cordova, police say, confessed that at Alameda it was intended to lure Mr. Watta into an automobile by presenting a forged order demanding his appearance at police headquarters. He then was to have been taken into the mountains near Cuernavaca and held for the $500,000 ransom.

A chauffeur tipped off police to the plot.

Captured U. S. Agent.

Gen. Cordova, the chief of the kidnapping plot, was formerly with the Zapatistas and afterward held a commission in the federal army. In 1919 bandits led by him captured the American consul agent, William Jenkins, in Puebla, and held him for a $150,000 ransom. The capture for a while threatened to cause armed American intervention.

After the ransom was paid and Mr. Jenkins was released he was arrested by the Carranza government, charged with having inspired his own kidnapping. The charge subsequently was dropped.

Coolidge Vetoes Plebiscite on Philippines Independence

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., April 6.—[Special.]—Conviction that "the people of the Philippine islands have not as yet attained capability of full self-government" led President Coolidge today to veto an act of the Philippine legislature proposing a plebiscite on the question of independence.

In a letter to Gov. Gen. Leonard Wood, returning the bill without his approval, the President asserts that entirely aside from economic or political reasons the veto is justified on the grounds that presidential approval might be interpreted as an expression of the American people favoring immediate independence of the Philippine islands.

Would Neglect Racial Groups. The letter points out that provision is not made in the act to canvass all of the various racial groups in the islands, that under such conditions the result of the proposed referendum would be unconvincing and might create friction and disturb business, thereby slowing down the steady development of the islands.

"Independence is a very appealing word. Few people will vote against independence for themselves or against independence for any one else," said the President. The Filipinos and their leaders, he says, are not generally informed as to the material assistance given the islands by the United States since their occupation, and have no fair appreciation of what immediate withdrawal of the United States would mean.

"Unfair to Islands."

"In view of this lack of understanding," the President's letter continues, "a vote on the abstract question of independence would be not only futile, but absolutely unfair to them, and the acceptance of the result as an informed judgment would be dangerous to their future welfare."

The letter states that the agitation for independence is largely based on the misapprehension that the United States, even though granting full independence, would still assume "the heavy responsibility of guaranteeing the security, sovereignty, and independence of the islands."

"In my opinion," writes the President, "this is wholly erroneous."

Blames Political Agitation. "Finally," declared the President, "I feel that it should be disapproved because it is a part of the agitation in the islands which, by discouraging capital and labor, is delaying the arrival of the day when the Philippines will have overcome the most obvious present difficulty in the way of an unaided government."

"A plebiscite on immediate independence would divert the attention of the people towards the pursuit of mere political power rather than the essential steps necessary for the maintenance of a stable, well governed community."

STRIVE TO RAISE LAW TO THWART BOND JUMPERS

Crime Foes Act to Curb Forfeit Evasions.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

(Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.)

CRIMINAL COURT. Theodore Rykowski, attempted burglary, sentenced to 1 to 5 years in Pontiac reformatory by Judge Harry B. Miller.

Escape of criminals through crooked bond practices would be stopped by proposed amendments to the Illinois bail statutes as worked out yesterday at a conference held under the auspices of the Cook county board.

Harry Newby, chairman of a special bonds committee of the board, presided. Others taking part were John Pasmore, clerk of the Criminal court; Col. Henry Barrett Chamberlin, operating director of the Chicago Crime commission; and Attorney Max Murdock, counsel for the Illinois Association of Real Estate boards.

Prepares New Bond Clauses. Tentative draft of a measure was prepared by Mr. Murdock last night and if approved it will be taken to Springfield today, it was learned. "Our bail system is hopelessly antiquated," Mr. Murdock said. "Changes in the bail law are necessary."

The present law enables unscrupulous bondsmen, Mr. Murdock pointed out, to make repeated transfers of title to real estate scheduled on a bond forfeited by nonappearance of the defendant, the bondsmen managing always to keep several jumps ahead of the law.

A simple expedient to forestall such transfers, it was pointed out, is to compel bondsmen to record their bonds in the recorder's office. A clause to this effect is inserted among the proposed amendments.

May Charge Frauds. Complaints charging criminal conspiracy in connection with at least two cases of allegedly fraudulent bonds may be sworn to this week before Municipal Judge Edgar A. Jones, it became known yesterday.

Judge Jones is trying, he said, to bring order out of chaos in connection with the some $250,000 in forfeited bonds he inherited along with his new job as judge of the bond court. He is being assisted by Assistant State's Attorney Irwin Goldstein.

Girls' Screams Rout Four Pay Roll Bandits

The screams of several frightened girl employees of the Van Pelt Branch United Last company, 440 West Huron street, frightened four armed bandits from the company's office without a $3,000 pay roll which had just been delivered by the Brink's Express company. The men entered the place with drawn revolvers. They started for the office where the money had been kept, when the girls saw the revolvers and screamed. The men scrambled for the street and escaped in an automobile, ltered blazing oil.

FLAMES SWEEP ROCK CITY; LOSS IS PUT AT $200,000

Rockford, Ill., April 6.—[Special.]—Damage estimated at $200,000 resulted from a fire at Rock City this afternoon which destroyed six buildings in the business district, in addition to a grain elevator, lumber yard, and coal yard and the railroad station and stock pens of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad.

A brick building with fireproof roof occupied by the Rock City State bank prevented spread of the fire to the remainder of the business section, firemen said.

A crew of a freight train hauled several cars of gasoline from the danger zone and saved $400 worth of eggs from the station by loading them into a car and hauling it away.

15 WORKMEN DIE IN BLAST AND FIRE AT OIL REFINERY

Paro, Wyo., April 6.—[Special.]—Fifteen workmen were killed and seven others were injured by an explosion and fire at the refinery of the Producers and Refiners corporation here early today. Damage to the plant was estimated tonight at between $500,000 and $1,000,000. Nearly every window in this model town of concrete buildings was wrecked by the terrific blast that wrecked a high pressure still and scattered blazing oil.

Need to Lose a Few Pounds?

A few effective suggestions for taking off pounds without being deaf to the stomach's demands

EVERY woman wants to be slender these days. But getting that way is another matter. Some urge starving. Others urge tremendous amounts of exercise. Both are hard and unnecessary.

The two important things are modification of diet (not starvation) and proper elimination through the bowels, kidneys and liver of fat-inviting waste matter. Do these two, and you'll be slender without much trouble; with no annoyance.

The best eliminator for this purpose, according to many authorities, is nothing more mysterious than old-time Beecham's Pills.

Take them regularly at night. Then a glass of water before breakfast.

Thousands of women now are taking these particular pills because, unlike most laxatives, they work on the bowels, and also tend to promote liver and kidney function. Most eliminators aim at only one or two. Complete elimination is necessary in weight reduction.

As to diet. Use whole wheat and bran bread instead of white. Have a dessert with only one meal a day—and that not cake or ice cream. Eat plenty of green vegetables; cabbage, spinach, lettuce, tomatoes, instead of vegetables that grow in the ground. Eat, too, lots of oranges, apples, grapes, etc. Eat lean meats, abstain from fats, like pork and ham.

You feel well fed all the time. And you are. You feel better, too, in every way. For you are constantly eliminating fat-fostering waste from your body. Do this for one month. You'll be surprised at how many pounds you can lose. Get 25c Beecham's Pills at any drug store.

Thousands of women now are taking these particular pills because, unlike most laxatives, they work on the bowels, and also tend to promote liver and kidney function. Most eliminators aim at only one or two. Complete elimination is necessary in weight reduction.

As to diet. Use whole wheat and bran bread instead of white. Have a dessert with only one meal a day—and that not cake or ice cream. Eat plenty of green vegetables; cabbage, spinach, lettuce, tomatoes, instead of vegetables that grow in the ground. Eat, too, lots of oranges, apples, grapes, etc. Eat lean meats, abstain from fats, like pork and ham.

You feel well fed all the time. And you are. You feel better, too, in every way. For you are constantly eliminating fat-fostering waste from your body. Do this for one month. You'll be surprised at how many pounds you can lose. Get 25c Beecham's Pills at any drug store.

BERLIN DEMANDS LIMIT ON ALL WAR WEAPONS

Tries to Force Allies to Total Disarming.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

GENEVA, April 6.—The Germans spring two surprises at today's preparatory disarmament deliberations when they introduced a new chapter to the draft of the treaty, demanding that military materials—rifles, machine guns, cannons, tanks, and armored cars—be limited along with man power, and later joined the Americans and Italians in opposing budgetary limitations. They proposed to limit military materials, both in service and in reserve.

Both the French and British drafts completely ignored military materials because of the obvious impossibility of securing acceptance of limitations in these categories, but the Germans, who emphasized their disarmament and the Versailles treaty stipulations as the basis for allied disarmament, are advancing the scheme whereby all guns would be limited.

French Frame Counter Move.
Lord Cecil is now awaiting instructions from London, while M. Paul Boncour of France is considering counter proposals to the British. These will be embodied in a formal proposal, if acceptable.

Gen. di Marini of Italy continued his uncompromising opposition to any fixed programs, arguing that if the countries are obliged to state in advance their armament figures they would be constrained to give the maximum figures, which probably would not approach reality but simply would be on the safe side.

Lord Cecil refused even to consider Gen. di Marini's amendment, declaring: "It would give us no assurance of security whatsoever."

U. S. Balks at Money Basis.
The Americans joined in opposing budgetary limitations, Ambassador Hugh Gibson declaring:

"Money expenditures for the creation and maintenance of armaments do not afford either a true measure of the armaments or a fair basis for limitation."

The motives which prompted Germany, after taking the most advanced stand of any nation on complete disarmament, to join the United States and Italy in opposing budgetary limitations was dramatically revealed today by the league's armament yearbook, which shows officially that Berlin's military expenditures on its army, which was limited to 100,000 by the peace treaty, have increased more than 50 per cent in the last two years.

Germany's Strength Shown.
Despite the Versailles stipulations regarding the strength of Germany's military forces, Berlin has doubled their efficiency with improvement in the materials and training and personnel by lavish expenditures. In the 1924-1925 fiscal year the appropriations, according to the year book, were 497,800,000 gold francs ($99,560,000). In 1925-1926 they were 590,600,000 gold francs ($118,120,000), while the 1926-1927 appropriations reached 696,800,000 gold francs ($139,360,000).

While budget comparisons and publicity are a fundamental part of the French draft of the treaty, Great Britain, as well as the neutrals, is supporting the Italians and Germans in energetically opposing it and the United States is laboring evidently under complete misapprehension as to its intention. Budgetary limitations, however, are not intended to act in comparison between different countries but as an auxiliary check on annual expenditures within countries.

The progress was almost backward in today's deliberations, with the Italian sabotage becoming so evident it aroused the ire of both Lord Cecil and M. Paul Boncour. Gen. di Marini first asked for an adjournment on the grounds that he had not had time to read the records. Later he protested against the private pourparlers between Lord Cecil and M. Paul Boncour, which are intended to bring a rapprochement between the French and British.

MRS. J. J. BRADY SUES EX-HUSBAND IN DOUBLE BILL

James J. Brady, described by his former wife as being "of considerable wealth, having been former state auditor in two suits filed in the Circuit court yesterday by Mrs. Katharina Brady of Oak Park, who obtained a divorce from him last December in Palm Beach, Fla.

The first bill asks that Mr. Brady be compelled to support their two children, Katherine, 16, and Mary, 8 years old. The second asks for an injunction to enjoin him from occupying a house at 314 North East avenue, Oak Park, which she alleges is hers.

MAC NIDER FLAYS APOLOGISTS FOR AMERICAN IDEALS

"Deriding U. S. Favorite Sport of Day."

College Park, Md., April 6.—(Special)—American internationalists who criticize the government's conduct of foreign affairs and apologize for American policies were denounced today by Hanford MacNider, assistant secretary of war, in an address before the students of the University of Maryland.

"The popular attitude on the public platform now is to apologize for America and all things American," Col. MacNider said. "We are overrun with organizations of native internationalists whose favorite sport is to hold us and our international dealings up to scorn and derision."

Weep Over Our Shortcomings.

"They kneel down beside us and exhort us to change our old-fashioned American ways; to admit the sins of imperialism, militarism, and penury, which we never realized we had. They weep and wail because our national generosity will not extend itself to cure the financial ills of all the rest of the world."

"Every foreign suggestion for the conduct of world affairs which we do not immediately adopt chases hundreds of native born agitators to the platforms of our schools and our clubs to denounce American policy. If we were to believe them, we would appear to be a hard and sordid people indeed."

Harangued by Uplifters.

"We are harangued by societies which boast long and fantastic names and urged to risk our claim on our coveted possessions of peace and freedom by throwing our defenses into the sea. They tell us that America is sorely aggravating every nation on earth by our unsympathetic attitude on foreign matters. They assure us in one breath that we are aligning the world against us and in the next that we should be ashamed of ourselves for spending a penny or giving a thought to the protection of the lives of American citizens."

ADMITTS SLAYING WIFE AND PAIR SHE LIVED WITH

Shot Them and Placed
Bodies in River.

Bluefield, W. Va., April 6.—(AP)—Henry Griffith, 48, of Richland, Va., has confessed to the murder of the two women, one of whom was his wife, and a man, whose bodies were found in the Clinch river near Swords Creek, Va., yesterday, Harry H. Couch, sheriff of Russell county, Virginia, said tonight.

The bodies were identified as those of Mollie Griffith, 35; Matthew Lawson, 31, and Lawson's wife, Pearl, 30. Griffith was arrested and taken to Lebanon, W. Va., by Sheriff Couch and N. Wilson, district attorney of Russell county, this morning. He identified the bodies, but denied any knowledge of the slayings. Later he confessed slaying the three.

Wife Had Left Him.
Griffith said that his wife had left him more than three weeks ago and that friends had informed him she was living with Mr. and Mrs. Lawson. Griffith told Sheriff Couch he had killed Lawson first and then the two women on March 27. Lawson, he related, ran down over a bluff and rolled to the river after he had been shot, while the two women were dragged to the edge of the bluff above the river and pushed into the water.

Repulsed by Wife.
Griffith said he had heard the Lawsons were leaving the neighborhood and were taking his wife with them. He said he had started out to search for them and had met them along a railroad track. He said he asked his wife to return to their home and she refused. Lawson intervened and said Mrs. Griffith would not return, Griffith said. The shooting followed.

REED GIBES AT LOWDEN IN FORD $1,000,000 SUIT

Continues Quizzing of Sapiro.

Director of the American Farm Bureau Federation; W. H. Settle, Indiana; Bernard M. Baruch, former chairman of the war industries board; Clifford Gregory, editor of the Prairie Farmer, and Daniel Wallace, St. Paul.

Of each of the incorporators Reed asked Sapiro, "Is he a wheat grower?" Most were not.

"The committee," said Sapiro, in explaining his answer that they did not grow wheat, "however, was not trying to control wheat, but was trying to help the state wheat associations to help themselves."

Reed asked Sapiro why he had resigned his connections with the American Farm Bureau federation. Sapiro said he retired because it was evident to him that the federation was not going ahead with a broad program of national wheat marketing.

"It was apparent," he said, "that John W. Coverdale, then secretary of the federation, was about to go ahead with the Armour Grain company and Rosenbaum Bros. & Co. and form the grain marketing company and try to stick the plan on the farmers. Mr. Peet and I learned of it and resigned."

William H. Gallagher, counsel for Sapiro, said he would not call Henry Ford to the witness stand until the last of next week or possibly later. He said that as soon as the defense finished with Sapiro, he would take his client over the same ground covered by Reed.

COOK COUNTY'S HOSPITAL WINS WORLD'S ACCLAIM

bow themselves through every corridor and down every stairway—way out to Harrison street. But they are more than polite. Their ideal of the profession and practice of medicine seems to be founded in reverence, for it is a calling in a real sense sacred. Physicians seem to look upon as public guardians and functionaries with a rank more impressive than licenses and degrees confer among us.

Filipinos Also Keen.
Another deeply interested racial group is the Filipinos—not only the adult observers who tarry for a few hours, but the resident student body in attendance on the vast group of medical schools and hospitals of which the County hospital is the center. These students from the Orient are not only ready learners; they also have a lively nationalistic and professional consciousness, of which their fraternity houses and group homes are telling proof.

Admits 40,000 Yearly.
The County hospital admits more than 40,000 patients annually. Between 700 and 800 post-mortems are performed annually by physicians on its pathology staff. This number is regarded as giving students extraordinary opportunities, although it is far exceeded in Vienna where every charity patient is what physicians call "a post." With us a charity patient's remains may be dissected only with the consent of relatives, or if the body is unclaimed.

Clinics run to nearly 2,100 annually—averaging about forty a week. They are attended week in and week out by 800 students at a cost to each student of $5 for a ticket good for one year. The clinics include all varieties of medical and surgical cases.
More than 40,000 dispensary cases are treated annually, and 40,000 more are examined and rejected. Thus, counting the 40,000 patients annually admitted to the hospital and the 80,000 dispensary cases examined—and treated or rejected—a total of 120,000 men, women, and children annually pass under the eyes and through the hands of the County hospital's attending staff of eighty-eight physicians and seventy internes. The equivalent of the population of an important city!

Maternity Hospital, Too.
In the first twenty days of last month 137 babies were born in Cook county hospital, 31 of them white and 106 of them colored—"and there," said one of the staff who gave me the figures, "is a bit of contrast that sociologists may wish to link with the fact that Cook county has roughly a population of three and a half million persons, of whom nearly a quarter of a million are colored."

Northwestern Students Ask Longer Spring Rest
Noting the budding trees, the soft skies, and the springlike atmosphere, students at Northwestern university yesterday got busy and circulated a petition asking for a longer vacation at Easter than the scheduled period from April 14 to April 19. The petition was signed by 1,500 students and several members of the faculty. Need of relaxation from arduous studies was given as the principal reason for a longer vacation. The petition will be presented to President Walter Dill Scott.

TIME HARDENED SOIL SOFTENS TO FLOWERY TOUCH

Thousand Plant Seeds for $1,000 Tribune Prize.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Exactly 1,000 flower growers are entered in this Tribune's garden contest. There is a gardener entered for every one of the thousand dollars offered as a grand prize to the best grower in the contest zone which covers an area of approximately forty miles north, south, and west from the Tribune Tower. Sixty-five names were added to the contestants' list yesterday.

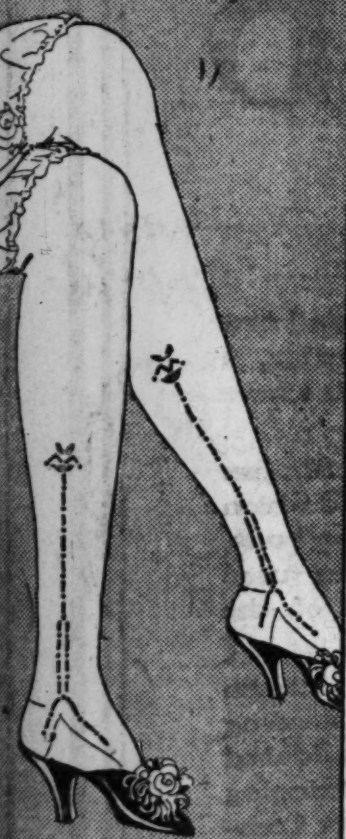

Ground Broken First Time.
Gardeners have started kicking up the soil on Chicago plots that haven't produced a blossom in ages. The contest seems to have stimulated interest in flowers among dozens and perhaps hundreds who had not dreamed of ever planting a seed in the ground. It is a contest where the novice has a chance to win one or more of the 121 cash prizes in competition with experienced gardeners.

Sunny days are rapidly advancing the planting dates and a good start already is made around many homes. May 10 is the entry closing date.

RULES

1. The Tribune will pay $5,000 in cash for the best flower gardens in Chicago area. A grand prize of $1,000 is offered. Separate cash prizes will be awarded on both late and early gardens.
2. The contest will be limited to gardens limited to land on which the contesting gardeners live and in the territory within a radius of approximately 40 miles from the Tribune Tower. The garden may be any size, shape, style, or type, if it covers at least 500 square feet or the equivalent of a plot 20 by 10 feet.
3. The Tribune flower garden contest area is divided into six districts. Each contestant must indicate on the coupon the district in which he lives. Copies of the contest district map will be sent free if requested is accompanied by stamped, addressed envelope. In the inner Chicago zone districts 1 and 2 are divided by the north branch of the Chicago river, while Nos. 3 and 4 are divided by south branch of the river.
4. You need not be an experienced gardener to compete.
5. Estate gardens, commercial gardens, and all other forms of gardening professionally conducted or maintained by paid professional gardeners or landscape architects are barred; the contest is open only to home gardens.
6. Every gardener in the prescribed area who complies with the above requirements

DURANT REVEALS PLAN FOR MOTOR CONSOLIDATION

Ford Adds $75,270,895
to Cash Surplus.

New York, April 6.—[Special.]—Two statements which have been eagerly awaited by the automobile industry appeared tonight. William C. Durant made known his plans for a consolidation of several automobile companies and the Ford Motor company issued its financial statement for 1926.

Mr. Durant announced the organization of Consolidated Motors, Inc., with the Durant companies as a nucleus, but he did not reveal what other concerns may be included. He also announced his resignation as a director in a number of corporations not connected with the automobile industry in order to devote his efforts to automobile making. He pledged his personal fortune to guarantee the financial responsibility of the new organization.

W. C. DURANT.
(Campbell Photo.)

No Public Financing.

"Consolidated Motors has for its object the bringing together of such independent motor companies as will be benefited by the arrangement," Mr. Durant said. "As each company is in excellent financial condition and as curtailment rather than expansion is contemplated, no public financing will be necessary."

However, it is planned to give dealers a stock interest by setting aside shares purchased in the open market and apportioning earnings on this stock on the basis of results attained without investment on the part of the dealers. Mr. Durant also announced a plan for time payments by purchasers of automobiles whereby only 6 per cent interest on deferred payments will be charged and other expenses will be borne by the company.

Adds $75,270,895 to Surplus.

The report of the Ford Motor company tended to dispel recent rumors of a sharp decline in sales, although they apparently were not as large as in 1925. The company last year added $75,270,895 to its surplus, after paying taxes and other charges. This also is after whatever dividends may have been paid to Henry Ford, his wife, and son, who are the sole owners of the $17,264,500 capital stock.

Last year's surplus earnings were equivalent to $427.62 a share on the capital stock. But it was smaller than in the two preceding years. For 1925, surplus earnings were $78,890,297, or $464.47 a share, and for 1924 they were $100,435,415, or $581.74 a share. Total surplus now stands at $697,637,788, compared with $622,366,893 at the end of 1925.

The statement shows Ford has been cutting down his inventory and adding to his cash account. The balance sheet with comparisons follows:

ASSETS.	1926.	1925.

DAWES HOME TO REST, SLUSH QUIZ HIS ONLY WORRY

Puzzled Over Time to Continue Probe.

Faced only by the problem of deciding whether to continue the senate slush fund investigation, Vice President Charles G. Dawes came home yesterday intending to spend a summer free from official duties and speaking engagements.

The Vice President explained that he is in the position of judge on the slush fund investigating committee, but doesn't know whether it should continue its activities during the congressional vacation and into the next congress.

Must Fill Vacancies.

In addition, Mr. Dawes said he must appoint a successor to Senator Guy D. Goff, Republican member of the committee, who resigned. He was not ready to predict when the decisions would be made.

Gen. Dawes arrived in Chicago from New Orleans. He has been on a month's visit to Panama and the West Indies.

On Chicago politics the Vice President was silent.

"I am not a candidate and I will not be a candidate next year for any office," he said in answering rumors that he might be a presidential possibility.

Back to His Desk.

Gen. Dawes spoke of the acquaintance he had made with President Chirimi of Panama, and their mutual interest in archaeology. The Panama executive presented him with thirty pieces of ancient Mayan pottery.

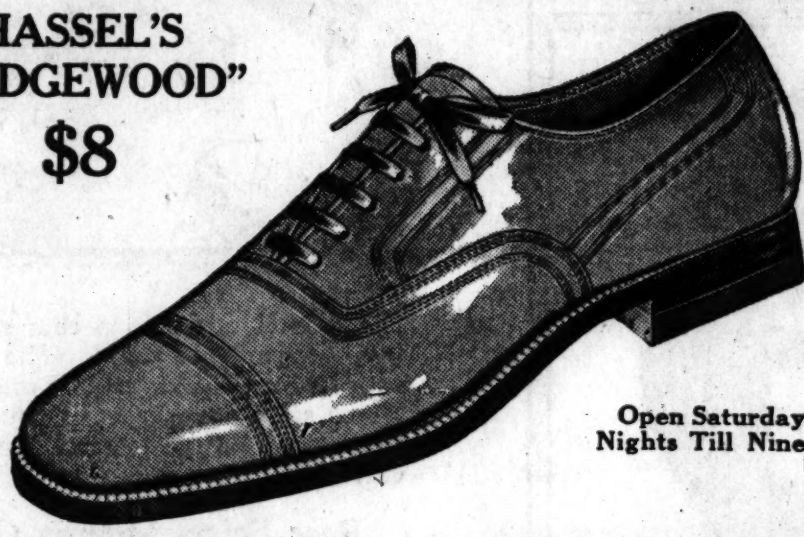

Mrs. Dawes, their adopted daughter, Virginia, and the child's companion, Miss Emil Decker, who made the trip, returned with the Vice President. The party was met at the Illinois Central station by Mrs. Melvin B. Erickson, and by Dana McCutcheon Dawes.

Gen. Dawes spent the day at his desk in the Central Trust company.

INJURY FROM TRAIN FATAL.

Stanley Griska, 44, of 4506 South Wood street, laborer, died yesterday from injuries suffered March 18 when he was struck by a Chicago Junction railroad freight train at West 46th street and South Racine avenue.

Durant Back on the Job

Of Interest to Star Dealers,
Stockholders of Durant Motors, Inc. and to the Public:

IN order that I may devote my entire time to the extensive project to which I am committed and in line with my announced intention (now that my health is restored) of re-engaging actively in motor affairs, every other interest secondary thereto, I am this day resigning the following honorary positions:

Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Liberty National Bank in New York; Director and Member of the Executive Committee of the Petroleum Heat and Fuel Company; Director of Loew's, Incorporated; Director of the American Safety Razor Company; Director of the Independent Oil and Gas Company, and a number of others of lesser importance.

As this will no doubt be a surprise to my associates, I wish to say that my investment holdings in these various enterprises will for the time being at least, remain undisturbed.

FOR many months past maliciously false statements have been circulated affecting the credit of the companies producing the Star Car, the object being to discourage dealers from taking on the line and to frighten prospective customers from considering this most worthy product.

While these producing companies are perfectly sound and need no guarantee, in the interest of Star Dealers who have during all this time been attempting to combat this insidious propaganda (a most discouraging task), I here and now pledge my entire personal fortune, guaranteeing not only the financial responsibility of these companies, but the stability of policies and the integrity of the management as well.

It is self evident that without an efficient dealer organization with a dependable outlet for its product, factories cannot properly function, and my plans for the future which I am briefly outlining as promised, have much to do with a well considered program, which program, greatly to the interest of Star Dealers and to the benefit of the Stockholders of Durant Motors, Inc., as well, I sponsor and intend to maintain at my own expense.

Apologos of the foregoing—

THE sale of automobiles on the much-discussed deferred payment or installment plan is today a most important factor and is largely responsible for the wonderful development of the motor industry in this country. Many plans are in vogue—some good, but all, when the customary charges are considered, very expensive. In the interest of Star Dealers my plan contemplates a revolving fund of no inconsiderable amount, which I have set aside for the purpose of financing the sale of Star Cars on a deferred payment contract, the entire cost to the purchaser amounting to an interest charge on deferred payments at the rate of six per cent per annum—all other charges, including fire and theft insurance, to be borne by me.

These obligations will be known as Approved Acceptance Contracts, protected by a proper initial payment, the balance of the purchase price evidenced by six deferred payments of equal amount.

In plain language, the cost to the purchasers of Star Cars on the Approved Acceptance Contract plan is approximately one-third of the present prevailing rates.

In the interest of Star Dealers my plan further contemplates setting aside for their benefit a considerable block of Durant Motors, Inc., stock purchased in the open market, the profits on this stock computed at the end of each year to be distributed to Star dealers based upon pre-arranged schedules and results obtained. There is to be no money investment or obligation on the part of the dealer under this arrangement.

Many curious people will be pleased to know why these unusual personal contributions and this great interest in Star dealers. The answer—Anything that will improve the condition of Star dealers will benefit the Stockholders of Durant Motors, Inc.

And if these same curious people should want to know what most concerns me at this moment—

My answer—That the name Durant shall stand for something better than a foot-ball in Wall Street.

But why the Star to the exclusion of all others in the Durant group?

Because the New Star Six, a brand new creation shown for the first time today, is the greatest automobile with which I have ever been identified.

And, by the way, the new Star Six has been selected as the nucleus around which Consolidated Motors, Inc. is being built, exactly as the Buick in 1908 was used as the nucleus and the keystone of the great General Motors.

To avoid misunderstandings and to lessen if possible the circulation of misleading reports, permit me to add—Consolidated Motors, Inc. has for its object the bringing together of such Independent Motor Companies as will be benefitted by the arrangement.

As each Company is in excellent financial condition and as curtailment rather than expansion is contemplated, no public financing will be necessary.

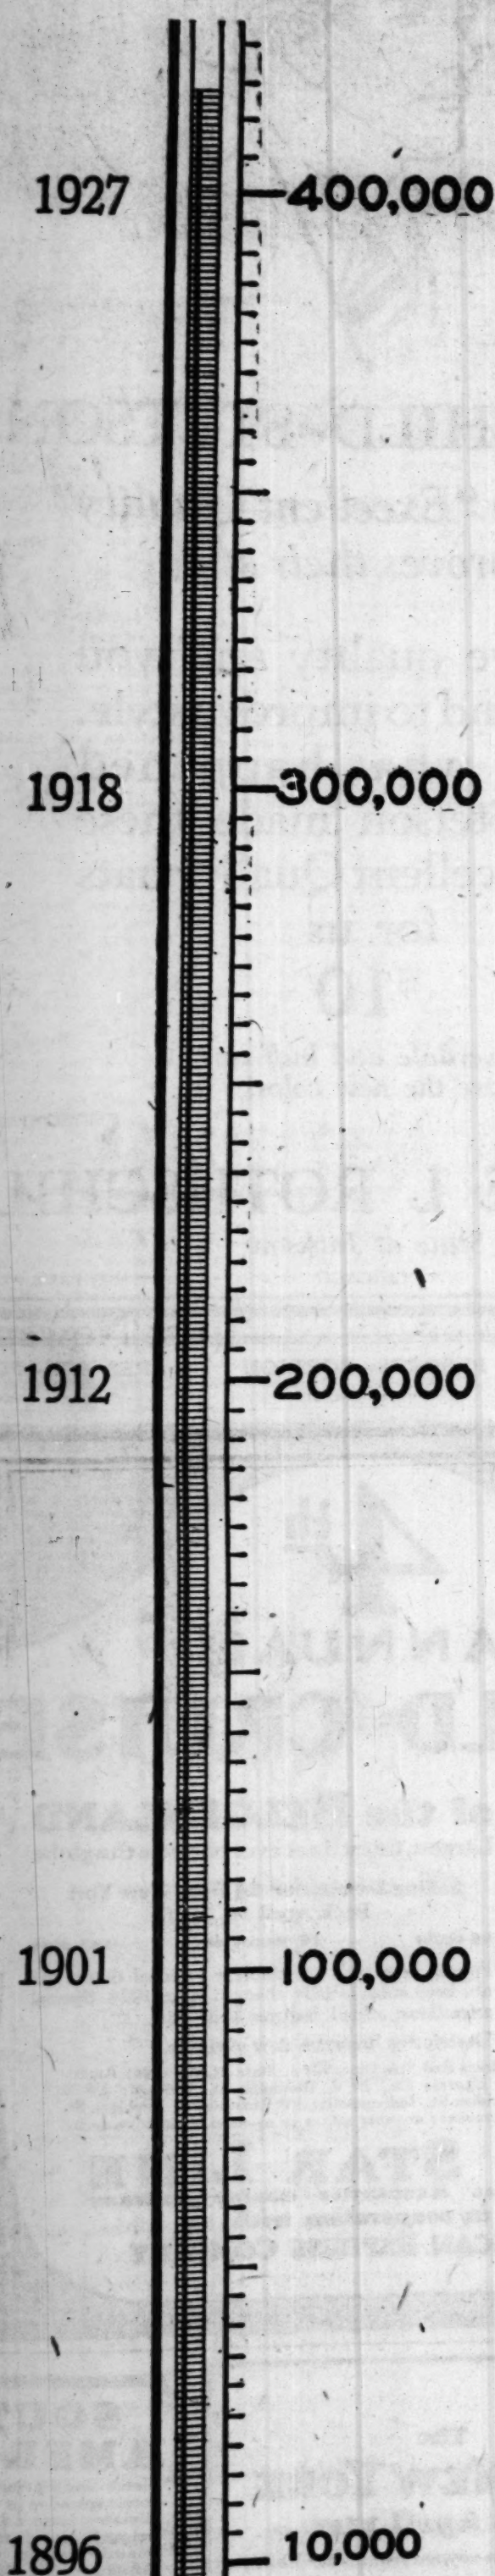

There will be less duplication of effort and energy, and fighting for business along reckless and wasteful lines now prevailing will at once be eliminated.

The plan is constructive—the fundamental purpose to stabilize, to an extent at least, America's First and Greatest Industry.

W. C. DURANT

Average Daily and Sunday Circulation

Vindicating Newspaper Readers

THE steady, continuing growth of the circulation of The New York Times is a vindication of the newspaper reading public; and an answer to the question "Is this a jazz age also for newspapers?"

The increasing circulation of The Times, strictly a newspaper, refutes pessimists who think that there is a diminishing interest in accurate, full information of what is going on in the world.

The New York Times is designed for intelligent, thoughtful people—a newspaper with dependable news, impartial and non-partisan—surpassing all others.

BOARD OF TRADE LEADERS CONFER IN WASHINGTON

Deny Jardine Summoned Chicagoans for Quiz.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 6.—(Special.)—Members of the business conduct and legislative committees of the Chicago Board of Trade, J. W. T. Duvel, chief of the grain futures act administration, and L. A. Fitz, senior grain exchange supervisor for the agriculture department, spent two hours today with Secretary of Agriculture Jardine, discussing grain marketing conditions in Chicago.

Reports that the business conduct committee of the board, headed by L. L. Winters, had been summoned to tell of its investigation of the so-called rye scandal, and its subsequent exoneration of the Armour Grain company which now stands accused of fraudulent transactions, were denied, although details of the conference were withheld.

May Change Regulations.
The discussion, it was asserted, centered upon the probable necessity for a revision of the regulations governing the operation of the Chicago Grain exchange and public grain warehouses in that city, when the Illinois state legislative committee's investigation into marketing conditions generally, and the practices of the Armour company in particular, have been completed.

Meanwhile, according to Dr. Duvel and Mr. Fitz, the agriculture department and the grain futures administration will cooperate with the state legislative committee in its inquiry.

BRIDGES TO HELP WALKERS OVER OAK PARK TRACKS

Wood bridges for pedestrians over the Lake street and Garfield park branches of the Chicago Rapid Transit lines in Oak Park were planned yesterday by village officials after they had heard numerous complaints that during the morning and evening rush hours trains arrive and depart so frequently that it is difficult to cross the tracks.

Complaints were also made that Oak Park is being neglected in train service during the non-rush periods.

The council ordered watchmen detailed to check on the arrival and departures of trains and the number of cars to the train before making a formal complaint to railroad officials.

NEW INQUIRY STARTED.
Another committee of the Board of Trade was directed yesterday to investigate public grain warehouses and related interests. This is said to have been due to recent developments in the hearing conducted by the Curran committee of the state legislature, and possibly because of what has been learned by the board's special committee.

The new committee is to work in conjunction with a special committee of five of the Board of Trade directors of which E. M. Combs is chairman, and Morris Townley, general counsel for the board, and Frank J. Delany are advisory members.

The new committee consists of James E. Bennett, chairman; Parker M. Paine, James E. Cairns, James P. Malloy, E. S. Westbrook, Edward R. Bacon Jr., John E. Brennan, F. G. Winter, F. S. Lewis, and John H. Jones.

It is said this new committee was appointed at the request of John Kellogg, president of the Armour Grain company.

WARNS U. S. NOT TO BUILD CANAL IN NICARAGUA

PANAMA CITY, April 6.—Maj. Ralph Kirkpatrick, who twenty years ago surveyed Nicaragua and Panama, recommending Panama for a canal route, in addressing the Canal Zone college club today refuted the possibility of a sea level canal in Nicaragua because of the tremendous amount of water which would be necessary to drain the canal.

He said, therefore, would be necessary, but he pointed out the possibility of damage to the locks and the possible wrecking of the canal by the earthquakes which frequent Nicaragua.

"A Nicaraguan canal would cost the United States at least $1,000,000,000," he said. "Unless military necessity is considered, a Nicaraguan canal is not needed for fifty or a hundred years."

KING IS DYING, KING IS BETTER, EUROPE HEARS

BELGRADE, Jugo-Slavia, April 6.—(AP)—A Bucharest dispatch received by Politika at 8 o'clock tonight said that King Ferdinand of Roumania was expected to die during the night and that all last religious rites had been performed.

Bulletin Says King Is Better.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BUCHAREST, Roumania, April 6.—A messenger bulletin today was the only official news on King Ferdinand. The report was slightly hopeful. The king's temperature today is dropping down to normal for the second time since his attack of grip a week ago. The bulletin says his temperature, which yesterday was 99.5 degrees, was only 97.7 today. His pulse was 90 and his respiration 22. The sovereign rested better last night.

MICHIGAN HOUSE APPROVES PRISON WHIPPING POSTS

Lansing, Mich., April 6.—(Special.)—The whipping post will be installed in Michigan prisons if two bills passed by the house today are accepted by the senate.

The bills provide that bank robbers and persons convicted of breaking and entering armed, may be given from ten to twenty lashes "on the bare back well laid on" every six months of their imprisonment, up to a total of 300 lashes.

The whipping post provisions were sponsored by Representative Charles Culver of Detroit, who has waged a vigorous fight for years for flogging as a preventative of crime. He asserted the whipping post is used successfully in Delaware.

Now~for Growing Children

Specialists advise it, as a source of the body-building elements

"WHAT shall I feed my child?" Doctors answer the conscientious mother's question from a richer fund of knowledge than ever before.

For sturdy growth, straight bones, good teeth, a child's food must contain a sufficient quantity of two elements—Calcium for bones and teeth and Vitamin A, necessary for growth.

Now that the importance of these elements is fully realized, specialists are definitely recommending "Philadelphia" Cream Cheese as a part of a child's diet.

For it is a superior dairy food, which contains a generous supply of both of these fundamentals in a form readily digested by children.

The well-informed mother gives, "Philadelphia" Cream Cheese as a spread for bread, at meals, between meals and for the school lunch. As a change from meat or eggs at lunch or supper. In sandwiches with jam or jelly for dessert.

To this careful mother "Philadelphia" means Cream Cheese because she knows that it is the standard of excellence in food content and in methods of preparation. Made by the famous Phenix Cheese Corporation. Always fresh, always pasteurized.

A world famous nutrition authority says:

"Philadelphia" Cream Cheese, besides being readily digestible has just those nutritive qualities so important to a child's diet which supplement and render valuable the proteins of cereal foods... Calcium and Vitamin A.

Healthy happy child-hood must have the right food.

Sturdy growth, good teeth, depend on two elements in the diet.

CONSTANT PEACE PLEDGE TAKEN BY ITALY, HUNGARY

New Pact Says All Rows
Must Be Arbitrated.

BY JOHN CLAYTON.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

ROME, April 6.—(AP)—There shall be constant peace and perpetual friendship between the kingdom of Italy and the kingdom of Hungary.

With these impressive words the treaty signed yesterday by Premier Mussolini and Count Bethlen opens all disputes between the two countries to be submitted to attempts at conciliation and, should that fail, to arbitration.

In Rome the treaty is regarded as an important part of the program, the purpose of which is to attain a new balance of power, not for war but for peace. With England, Germany, Italy, and Hungary, and eventually the other powers, regulating their mutual relations through such instruments, peace is more likely to be maintained than through instruments calling for mutual assistance in event of war, it is declared.

No Quarrels Exempted.

The treaty contains only five articles, while the protocol for application of the principles of conciliation and arbitration contains eighteen. There is no special clause assuring neutrality of one nation in event the other is engaged in war, as reported by the French press today. The protocol simply places all disputes, without any exceptions, within the competence of a commission of conciliation, comprising three members, one from each contracting nation and a third who will be designated from the citizens of another power by the first two members.

It is within a period of three months from the day one contracting party has notified the other of its intention to resort to the procedure of conciliation, the nomination of a commissioner by the other party or the designation of a president of the commission has not taken place by common agreement of the contracting parties, the president of the Swiss confederation will be asked to designate this person.

Settle by Majority Vote.

In the same way the arbitration commission would be chosen. A majority vote of the commission makes its decisions binding.

The Rome newspapers tonight report conversations are going on between the Jugo-Slav minister and the foreign office, which may lead to the ratification of the Jugo-Slav treaty of the Nettuno agreement. These conversations were begun through the initiative of Premier Mussolini and it is hoped they will lead to a settlement of all outstanding questions between the two nations.

Premier Count Bethlen was received by the Italian king today. He will return to Budapest Friday.

PLANE BURNS, BUT DE PINEDO WILL GO ON IN NEW ONE

Boy's Cigaret Sets Historic Ship Afire.

ROME, April 6.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini, replying to a request by Commander de Pinedo, has ordered rushed to the United States an Italian army plane to replace the one burned and enable the commander to continue his trip across the United States to Canada and back to Italy.

TRAGEDY IN CIGARET MATCH.

Roosevelt Dam, Ariz., April 6.—(AP)—Undaunted by the burning of his

FRANCESCO DE PINEDO.
(P. & A. Photo.)

The match was tossed on the oil coated surface of the water about the plane after the youth lighted a cigarette. Within a few minutes the ship on which De Pinedo had lavished such care was a mass of flames.

Mechanics Jump For Lives.

Everything was in readiness for the departure of the flyer on the San Diego leg of his journey. The aviator was bidding good-bye to friends on the shore as the match struck the oil coated water. A flash and flames enveloped the plane. Capt. Del Paete, and the mechanic, M. Paschetti, jumped overboard to save their lives.

The oil had been spilled on the water in refueling the ship. De Pinedo was the first to sense the danger as the lighted match struck the water. He ran to the water's edge but could do nothing to save the plane. Within fifteen minutes the million lire Savoie type seaplane equipped with 500 horsepower motors was a total loss. It was only a short time until the huge twin engine fell from their supports and sunk sixty feet to the bottom of the reservoir.

Watches Hopes Go Up In Smoke.

Commander de Pinedo had no comment to make when spectators offered sympathy. His eyes were fixed upon the charred skeleton of the Santa Maria, all that remained of his dream of conquering four continents by air. Commander de Pinedo arrived at Roosevelt Lake at 10:14 this morning after a flight from Hot Springs, N. M. He had planned to stop here only long enough to refuel.

A search was made for the youth who had dropped the match, but he had lost himself in the crowd.

3,000 WALTONIANS HERE TODAY FOR FIFTH PARLEY

Nearly 3,000 members are expected here this morning for the fifth annual convention of the Isak Walton league at the Hotel Sherman which will extend until Saturday when Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover, honorary president of the league will speak.

Charles W. Folds, national president of the league, entertained the presidents of the state divisions at the Chicago club last night.

Among the projects to be furthered is the preservation of a herd of 20,000 elk at Jackson Hole, Wyo., which is said to be faced with extinction because of inadequate food.

DELO COMPANY ROBBED.

The Randolph Drug company, 140 North Wells street, was visited by robbers yesterday who escaped with $700.

Red Grange and Cab Co. Sued for $15,000 Damages

Harold E. (Red) Grange and the Yellow Cab company were sued for $15,000 in a suit filed in the Circuit court yesterday by Thomas Merritt, colored. The plaintiff, according to his attorney, was injured on Nov. 14, 1926, when struck by Grange's car, driven by his brother, Garland Grange, following a collision with a taxi at South Park way and 47th street.

Slow Death

Neglect brings death or disability to thousands annually

These Are the Results of neglected "social" diseases

No less authorities than the United States Public Health Service and the American Social Hygienic Association state that, unless promptly and properly treated, "social" diseases may cause:

Insanity
Paralysis
Blindness
Heart Disease
Softening of the Brain (Paresis)
Bright's Disease
Pelvic Disorders in Women
Locomotor Ataxia
Defective Children
Stillborn Infants
Sterility
Diseases of the Arteries
Epilepsy
Apoplexy
Joint Diseases
Chronic Internal Ailments

Why risk the danger of disability or death when inexpensive treatment for a comparatively brief period will restore you to health, efficiency and happiness?

Death is abroad in Chicago's streets. Into Chicago's homes, its schools, its offices, its factories, its churches, death follows the dread menace of "social" diseases.

Dividing their prey among innocent and guilty—reaching sometimes to the babe and to the unborn, these insidious diseases yearly take their toll of 300,000 lives—more than six times the American fatalities in the World War.

And neglect alone is responsible.

"Social" diseases can be cured, but ignorance of their danger, neglect, and an unwillingness to discuss them openly has made them a national peril. They have spread so that fully 50% of our young men are infected with one form or the other before they reach the age of thirty.

Far worse than the diseases themselves are the effects which invariably result from their neglect. Unless promptly and properly treated, they are almost certain to cause one or more of the disastrous afflictions listed at the left.

If you know or suspect yourself to be infected, don't delay. Every day, every hour, is priceless. Health and happiness may yet be yours if you act promptly—disability or even worse if you do not. See a reputable physician, at once, or come to the Public Health Institute for examination and advice.

The Public Health Institute offers the services of its trained physicians to anyone—man or woman—who has contracted a "social" disease. Thousands who have come here for treatment have been freed from infection and despair. More than 1,200 patients are now being treated here daily in an atmosphere of privacy and sympathetic understanding.

The Institute is organized "not for profit." Every penny of its income is devoted to maintaining its service, to bettering its facilities, and to research and educational work which will result in more effective treatment for the patient and increased protection to the community. The fees are easily within the reach of all and are the same to every patient.

Whether you now have active symptoms, or have been infected in the past and are not sure that the disease has been fully cured, the Institute is open to you. An examination will disclose the nature of your trouble and determine the treatment, if any, that you may need.

LABOR TURNOVER SHRINKS IN NEW INDUSTRIAL ERA

BY HARPER LEECH.

A Chicago labor agent tells this writer that never in his experience was there so much evidence of low labor turnover. That's another instance of the amazing stability of American industry in the last two or three years—a stability in part due to the new inter-commodity and inter-service competition and the neutralization of the big business by the smaller cycles of individual industries. According to one compilation covering concerns employing normally 600,000 workers the voluntary quits per 100 on the pay roll were for 1919, 69.7; 1920, 104.9; 1921, 157.7; 1922, 111; 1923, 142.9; 1924, 121.25; 1925, 112.6; 1926, 115.5.

In years of great business volume like 1925 and 1926 men are holding on to their jobs almost as tightly as in years of slow business.

Reasons are two fold, and rooted in the increasing displacement of hand labor by machinery. It requires as a rule steadier and more foresighted men to operate the swift and exact machines of this day. The same machines are cutting down jobs so that they appear durable even in flush periods of production and prosperity.

Note the following increases and decreases in the number of workers in various industries from 1923 to 1926. The same list of industries discloses a preponderance of increases in the value of output between the two years. The preponderance of decreases in the number of wage earners employed is striking.

Bread and bakery products—Decrease 1.4 per cent; but, 1.5 per cent; brooms, 1.4 per cent; butter, 1.4 per cent; buttons, 1.3; clocks, and watches (increase), 1.7; cloth hats and caps, 10.4; dyeing and finishing textiles (increase), 11.4; four milling, 8.1; heating and cooking apparatus, 4.4; knitted outer wear, 4.4; lumber and timber, 4.4; manufactured ice, 4.4; marble, slate and stone, 8.7; needles, pins, etc., 14.4; paints and varnishes, (increase), 11.7; paper boxes (increase), 5.1; paving materials, 11.1; pig iron and ferro alloys, 20.5; planing mills, (increase), 8.1; power laundries (increase), 23.7; printing and publishing (increase), 2.1; pumps (increase), 23.2; saddlery and harness, 31; shirts, 3.5; structural iron work, 6.3; textile machinery, 21.3; wooden boxes, 11.

STOCKS CONTINUE ADVANCES, WITH STEELS IN LEAD

YESTERDAY'S AVERAGES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 6. [Special.]—The stock market, with a slight diminution of speculative enthusiasm, continued its advance today. It lacked some of the spectacular features of yesterday's trading but United States Steel common again struck new high ground at 17 1/2 and was followed by substantial gains in Bethlehem Steel, Republic Iron and Steel and Sloss-Sheffield.

There was considerable selling in the form of profit taking as well as in bear pressure, but the recessions for the most part were narrow. Except in a few individual issues the net gains on the advancing market were moderate as compared to yesterday. Some of the leaders like General Motors and Du Pont got out of step, the former closing at 18 1/2, a loss of 1/2 point, and the latter dropping to 22 1/2, but coming back to close at 23 1/2, a net setback of 1/4 point.

Unusually Over Motors. This departure was commonly ascribed to profit taking although in some quarters the moderate weakness of General Motors was held to be due to uncertainty as to plans of the corporation's competitors. The market seemed to ignore entirely the items in the day's news that would seem adverse. In the face of some automobile and gasoline price cut announcements both the motor and oil issues held up fairly well. Oils did gain a point or more.

Continental Baking A. enlivened trading in the afternoon by rising sharply in response to a reassuring statement as to the company's dividend prospects. The stock closed at 4 1/2 for a net gain of 1/4 point.

Some Advancing Stocks. Freeport Texas closed at 4 1/2 points above Tuesday's final quotation. Net advances of 3 points or more were made by Houston Oil, Kansas City Southern, Reynolds Tobacco, Texas Gulf Sulphur, United Cigar, Western Maryland 2d preferred and Woolworth.

There were a few weak spots, one being Fox Film A which was heavily sold, breaking below 49 for the first time this year. Another was American Agricultural Chemical preferred, the decline in which represents doubts about the fertilizer trade. Some of the sugar stocks reacted as a result of conditions in the raw sugar market.

Utility stocks showed some signs of reawakening. Brooklyn Edison was up nearly 2 points and Consolidated Gas issues were firmer. Peoples Gas reached a new high of 135 and closed at 137 1/2.

OUTSIDE BUYING HELPS WHEAT TO ATTAIN ADVANCE

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Outside interest in the grain markets was larger, and with strong cables from Liverpool, wheat prices advanced readily and closed within a fraction of the top with net gains of 1/16 to 1/8 with May leading. Lateral finished at $1.25 1/2, over July, compared with $1.25 on Tuesday, while September was $1.27 1/2 at the last.

Closing of spreads between wheat and corn, with active buying of the latter grain by shorts and commission houses caused a sharp bulge with net gains of 1/16 to 1/8 with May, 74 1/2; July, 75 1/2; and September, 76 1/2. Oats were 1/16 to 1/8 higher with May, 44 1/2; July, 45 1/2; and September, 46 1/2. Rye gained 1/16 to 1/8 with May, $1.04 1/2; July, $1.05 1/2.

A bulge of 1/16 to 1/8 in wheat futures in Liverpool was responsible for scattered local and commission house buying here at the start, while the market was under $1.15 for May. Selling of the latter by holders of bids checked the upward for a time, but the surplus in the pit was readily absorbed, and when sellers of bids started to cover there was little for sale, causing the upward to the high point of $1.25 1/2 for May. The latter acted tight at times. There was also buying of wheat against sales of corn.

Trade in corn was larger, and while there was selling of bids against purchases of wheat, later there was aggressive buying credited to short covering by a local professional which caused a sharp advance, May touching 74 1/2, or 3/16 over the low of last week. Sellers of offers tried to protect themselves on the way up.

Trade in oats was light, but the strength in other grains brought in fair local and commission house buying and made a higher level. Longs sold on the upturn.

Houses with seaboard connections bought rye early, and later there was buying by commission houses, and with light offerings an advance was easily attained.

PRODUCT PRICES LOWER

With larger arrivals of hogs than expected and a break of 10¢ to 15¢, mainly on light, an easier feeling prevailed in the market for product, and with the best selling pressure on September and at the last, the close was at net losses of 2¢ to 4¢. Lard in Liverpool was unchanged to 3¢ higher. Short ribs and bellies for future delivery were neglected and closed 5¢ higher for ribs and 10¢ to 15¢ for bellies. Cash trade was moderate, with dry salted ribs and light clear bellies in the lower. Exports of lard were $10.500 lbs. and bacon 27.500 lbs.

Slaughtering of hogs in the west last week as given by the Price Current Grain Reporter aggregated 615,500, against 441,500 last year. Aggregate for the summer season to date, 3,028,500, against 2,730,000 last year. Prices follow:

Starring Dulcie Jayne

By VIRGINIA TRACY.

SYNOPSIS.

Cornelia Marsh, employed in the scenario department of Hertzog's Perfection Motion Picture Studio at Port Lee, N. J., learns with sorrow that Henry Horner, the head of the department, has been fired by Lyman Hertzog, son of the owner of the studio. Henry Horner knows that Lyman is jealous of him because he is in love with Dulcie Jayne, the star of the studio, but Dulcie seems to prefer her director, Daniel K. Leland. Hertzog suggests to Lyman that they feature Leland as an actor as well as a director and this causes a quarrel between father and son. Old Mr. Hertzog suffers a stroke of apoplexy as a result and Lyman is left in charge of the studio. His first independent action is to discharge Leland, who takes his dismissal coolly and proceeds to finish a picture he was working on. Lyman meets Dulcie on location and tries to kiss himself on her. Henry Horner, Leland's camera man, comes to her assistance. Cornelia Marsh is detained at the studio by Lyman, after the others have gone to write a criticism of a play he's interested in. She asks Lyman to let her off because she has an engagement to meet her mother downtown and take her to dinner and the studio as a birthday celebration. Lyman refuses. Cornelia misses the last trolley, but Dulcie comes along in her car and offers her a lift to the ferry. Dulcie invites Cornelia and her mother to dine with her and she tells Cornelia that she is to have a picture made by Hertzog and have him submit a scenario. Cornelia suggests that Dulcie write to Henry and have him submit a scenario. Lyman's scenario is rejected by Lyman, after being passed on by the entire scenario department. Cornelia cables Dulcie, who is making a picture in Africa, and the star promptly marries Henry Horner, who has been acting as an extra in her company, unknown to Lyman.

INSTALLMENT LXV.

A CLEAN HATE.

This personage was seated on a couch outside the tearoom, but, even as Cornelia's gaze steadied itself, she rose and gravely extended farewell fingers to a meager, wobbly fragment of masculinity, like a mechanical toy. His back was toward Cornelia, but his circle of long hair fringing his baldness was recognized at a glance. And then, instantly, she remembered the dark woman as Mrs. Rignold, who had written "Heart of Fire."

This lady having withdrawn her hand, Mr. Mack saluted upon an elevator, straight past Cornelia, who drew back but could not take her eyes from him. Nor indeed could anybody within earshot of the piercing little middle aged lips with which the small creature ran forward, cursing and gesticulating vengeance at the elevator man whom he suspected of leaving him behind. Cornelia watched him into the car, watched his shaky little legs vanish upward and then turned away breathing deep, her spirit fused, cleansed, healed, re-energized by a clean hate. Leisurely but steadfastly she overtook the dark woman—"Mrs. Rignold!"

Mrs. Rignold consciously summoned what recognition she could into her face.

"Hold on a minute!"

"I'm Cornelia Marsh of the Hertzog scenario department. You spoke to me once outside—"

"Why, of course! I'm glad—"

"Mrs. Rignold, I understood then, from Miss Jayne, that Independence Pictures—that they mattered to you, too."

"I have thrown in my greatest novel," replied Mrs. Rignold, with awe-inspiring directness.

"Then you are still doing business with them?"

"Mercy!" said the great authoress. "Test!"

"I have something for them here," and Cornelia produced her envelope, which will prove for them quite entirely that Lyman Hertzog was the first to break Miss Jayne's contract and—to what lengths he would go to injure her. You are the only person to whom I can trust it. I wouldn't trust Miss Jayne's father with it, I wouldn't trust him with a hair of her head. But she must have it, Mrs. Rignold. Will you take it? Will you give it to her yourself?"

"But my dear Miss Marsh," cried the other woman, "don't you know—"

"What?" Cornelia demanded heavily. "Nothing! I know nothing at all!"

Mrs. Rignold's face was a study in hesitation, in contending reluctances. "That there's very little said yet—"

What Mrs. Rignold had said was not, Cornelia felt sure, what she had started out to say.

"Everything will be settled as they wish when she and Henry Horner have this in their hands."

Having waited a moment in a dead silence that called on Mrs. Rignold to explain, Cornelia left her, pledged to the delivery of the sealed envelope and with a queer, worried, pitying look of admiration in her eyes, of balked utterance round her still open mouth.

Cornelia went steadily and quietly home. There, when she told her mother what she had done, Mrs. Marsh said, "Well, it was the best thing, I guess." They both felt strangely better, as if something crushing and deadly had been got out of the house.

But then, without knowing it, they were both once more sucking a sweet and thrilling poison: some formless suggestion in that phrase, "But, dear Miss Marsh, don't you know—" added its poignancy to the subconscious belief that, after such an offering as Cornelia's, a hand must be stretched out. For one more evening it was possible that they should secretly expect to hear the telephone ring.

That silence was what cried in the night with a loud voice, "Put not your trust in princes! No, nor in movie queens!"

The scenario department found Monday a dull day, nothing of any moment occurring save the return of H. Jerome Hibbard and a report that Miss Jacobs was approaching the crisis of her pneumonia in "as satisfactory a condition as could be expected." Mr. Leach's laryngitis had evidently made good its threat, for he was still absent and Lyman never came near the place. But on Tuesday afternoon Miss Frye, once more encountered at Miss Jacobs' desk, heard some one moving about in Lyman's office; after a few minutes he appeared on the communicating threshold with the command, "Send in that Marsh woman!"

Miss Frye felt rather more than girlishly fluttered. Not merely on account of the extreme urgency of her employer's mood of expression, but because his brow was so dark and his mouth so swollen that she, as a good number of the scenario department, could imagine nothing sufficiently terrible to account for such portents, except that perhaps Miss Jacobs had died.

Miss Frye would have been genuinely sorry to have Miss Jacobs die, but like the rest of us, she would also have been genuinely glad, if Miss Jacobs were going to die anyhow, to have Miss Jacobs' job. And she now feared that Miss Marsh, through simply being the only one on the spot the day of the command, had wormed in ahead of her. This was not the fear which descended upon Miss Marsh when Lyman's message was conveyed to her.

"You can go back and get your hat and coat on and clear out of here," said Lyman from his father's chair. The still gathering fury of his face and shoulders told her for the first time how he felt about her. At that moment the impressive ferocity with which his voice came gave him a sort of menacing huddle, like a sick boar, his very chunkiness had something terrible about it. "Or do you see any little pickings around anywhere you'd like to about it. Or do you see any little pickings around anywhere you'd like to about it. Or do you see any little pickings around anywhere you'd like to about it."

"You can go back and get your hat and coat on and clear out of here," said Lyman from his father's chair. Good morning! Do you believe in divorce?

All right for the parents, but hard on the children, you say, and this picture says. But it will have proved a splendid thing for future generations if today's children of divorce do not forget to remember their own lonely, disillusioning childhood.

The picture is a little different than the story by Owen Johnson, from which it was adapted, but as stands it is a human, get together, revealing thing, beautifully presented, and smoothly cast.

Please note especially Gary Cooper as Ted Larrabee. He will make you think of Valentino at the same time, for you are realizing he is entirely different. Like the late idol, he is slim and dark and romantic looking, but his technique is not the same. A most appealing chap whose tense, keyed up, adoring, desperate impersonation seemed to me a screen event.

Clara Bow gives a brilliant characterization of a reckless, lovable, unhappy child of divorce, and Esther Ralston as another homeless daughter is a gorgeous, gracious creature. Einar Hansen in the other principal role is disappointing—wooden—but he hasn't time to do so, so do not mind.

The story takes two little girls, left in a convent by divorced parents, when they are mere babies, through an unnatural childhood and an undisciplined youth. Kitty Flanders is the tempest. Jean Waddington is the sunshine. Ted wants to bask in the sunshine, but the tempest gets him, though he isn't at all what the tempest wants. She wants her Vico—but Vico isn't rich, and she's been taught she must marry for money. So—the rest of the picture—full of high lights and shadows.

A fascinating film.

Suburbs, of course. Out where one's cheeks can grow and bloom with the flowers in summer. I imagine it would be fierce going in a cold winter—this last one couldn't have been so bad. I have lived in the city all my life, and a change would seem good to me.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "The Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune, 3847 Greenview avenue, was awarded $5.

The Question.

Which is the preferable place to build a home, in the city or in the suburbs?

The Answers.

W. E. Gillespie, 1223 East 54th street, railroad conductor—

There are so many things that depend upon conditions, how much money one has to put into a home, location, etc. For myself I would prefer the suburbs if I could get strong enough to have a lawn in front and a garden in the rear.

Miss Gladys Mahan, 2334 North Racine avenue, book-keeper—We must not so discourage Chicago real estate owners that they will kneel right down and make prices within reach of all who would like to own a home and live close to convenience.

The answer to that question is, the most desirable location for each particular family is the place for that particular family.

E. G. Sale, 143 North Wabash avenue, manager. If I were building a home I would choose one of the suburbs, and if possible this would be along the north shore.

That rapidly growing extension of the city is especially desirable. It is everywhere attractive.

Miss Martha Dordgen, 3644 West 23d street, bookkeeper—

No-Breakfast Club Out of Favor with This Doctor-Mother

A group of young girls, aged 15 to 17, formed a no-breakfast club. The rules of the organization were no breakfast, little lunch, and dinner at night.

It seems in their set a girl who looked as if she partook of three good meals a day was not popular with the boys. It was decided thereupon that no such thing as a look of honest health or a naturally rosy cheek was going to alienate the attentions of the presiding Rodolphos. Not while a jazz band and a saxophone were calling.

The mother of one of the girls happens to be a doctor. When she got wind of the club she started out to find its chief organizer with something in her eye that looked a trifle ominous for the immediate comfort of that breakfastless club leader. After tracking down a few scents her search led her back home, where the leader of the hunger strikers was discovered in the person of her own young emancipated.

Daughter is eating breakfast now. She happened to have the kind of mother who meant what she meant when she said it. She writes me imploring me for the sake of these girls grown a few years older to inform them what this present bid for popularity will be worth to them when the moment for a real conquest comes into their lives.

Girls of this age need food in the morning to draw on for energy used in the day's activities. They should have for breakfast a cereal with cream, fruit, a boiled or poached egg with toast, and a glass of milk. If they don't build energy from food now, in a couple of years their emotional activities and impulses will run away with them. They crave abnormal excitement. Nervous, high strung, ill balanced, they are not fit for motherhood. Another pernicious practice, the doctor warns, is pulling down the busts with tight brassieres for the first boyish front requirements. It retards development and eventually causes the busts to become flabby and pendulous.

A Friend in Need

BY BALLY JOY BROWN.
Ex-Servicemen Ask Radio
Batteries.

"We are boys, ex-service men, in this hospital. Some generous person gave us a five tube radio, but we need the batteries for it. Do you think you could secure them for us through your column?"

It would be a well placed gift, the batteries for this radio, and would bring an enormous amount of pleasure into the drab lives these boys lead.

Typewriter Would Help.
"I am trying hard to make a living addressing envelopes and would like to have a typewriter, if possible. Do you know of any one who may have one? I would appreciate it very much."

This young woman could accomplish a great deal with the old typewriter you are no longer using. It probably could be renovated and put in good condition for her.

Of Interest to Musicians.
"We have several thousand pieces of piano music and various instruction books to give away. We also have four large orchestras, containing hundreds of pipes. These should be worth something to the right parties."

This splendid offer will take care of a good many people wanting music, and perhaps some other clans would like to have the instruments.
